Electric Pasta Maker

Got a new kitchen toy. It's like a tiny robot who makes pasta in seven different shapes automatically. Even measures the ingredients and tells you how much flour and liquid to add. Tastes great, much better than the store bought stuff. All the parts are dishwasher safe so even cleanup is easy. Did order a dishwasher basket to hold all the parts. Pasta will keep in the freezer for up to three months. Cooks faster too and you can substitute liquid beyond just egg and water. Also able to experiment with different types of flour. Recipe book too. Hamilton Beach for $130.00

Got tired of waiting for the VA to fix my hearing aids so Daughter Margaret found an ent who knew how to fix. I am now dangerous again with my phone.

Unintended consequences...words have meaning.

FBI has a huge backlog of gun permit requests. Over 22 million new in 2020 but more in the process. Ammunition that cost a quarter a round now goes for two bucks a bullet. Over a million handguns were purchased last year when they could be found on the shelves. Almost 400 million guns...almost half the world's total...are in the hands of Americans protected (for now) by the 2nd Amendment. Kamala and her cohorts may be receiving salespersons of the year award from the NRA.

Garbage man left an AA pamphlet in my recycling bin. Judgmental a****! With this broken ankle, my trash has been out more than I have. Boot comes off today. Ignore the screams.

Book Report

Lincoln/Joe PI partners 4th episode further highlighting Koryta's talent. Lots of twists and turns in the plot but Koryta keeps you focused on the script.

H/T again to Dr. Marshall. Cussler wasn't my favorite with Dirk Pitt but Isaac Bell character has me hooked. Neat history of aviation in this one.

I guess it's true...women have a hard time making up their minds. Governor Tim "waltzing" Walz of MN has a daughter who has been in the middle of the riots...even keeping the rioters notified about National Guard movements. The Capital protests were a bit weird...didn't see any large screen TV's being carted off. And the crowd booing that guy (dressed all in black) who broke a window? Or the Capital policeman escorting and taking selfies with an orderly single file line of rioters way inside the building? What was that all about?

The statistics on sanity are that one out of every four persons is suffering from some sort of mental illness. Think of your three best friends -- if they're okay, then it's you. You're welcome.

With the boot on my foot there is no way I could drive my Miata's stick shift. After three weeks, I wanted to get her juices flowing so DiL Brenda and granddaughter Gracie took her for a spin. I contemplated reporting it stolen to see how long it would be before local Leo's found them...but my SiL (MPLS Leo) suggested that locals may not have a sense of humor. Five speed manual transmission is a theft preventative but no challenge for DiL Brenda raised on a farm with all kinds of machinery. The Miata's been with me for 30 years now and the grandkids know it isn't in my will...I tell them I'm gonna be buried in it. Local mechanic who does the oil changes always suggests that he drive it for a week or so just to thoroughly check her out...I think he likes her too.

On the morning of President Trump's inauguration on January 20, 2017, hundreds of radical left-wing Antifa terrorists ascended upon Washington, DC to violently protest against the duly elected President, Donald Trump. This angry mob of Antifa thugs smashed storefronts and bus stops, smashed windows, and set a black limousine on fire.

Didn't know that did you?
