

The Biden Bunch have decided that gas stoves are dangerous and should be banished. Our thanks to the Babylon Bee for reminding the Biden Bunch of other dangerous items:

Toasters: Their job is to turn something white into something brown, which is black-face for bread and racist.

Furnaces: that's like a gas stove for your entire house.

Coffee Makers: Do you know how many third-world workers were exploited to bring you that bag of coffee beans? We don't know either, but it's probably a lot.

Blenders: These turn everything into one homogenous slurry instead of retaining the individual identity of each ingredient. It's like they don't care about diversity at all!

Washing Machines: Separate cycles for whites and colors? What year is it, 1619???

Waffle Irons: You know who else liked waffles? Hitler, that's who!

Air Fryers: These aren't very problematic but they take up a lot of counter space and a real pain to clean.

More squirrels have been scheduled to keep your attention focused.

All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

Current reality reminds me that as a kid, we had so many eggs and toilet paper we threw them at our friend's house as a joke. We have better things to laugh about today.

The (p)resident just said the government has F15's that are more than a match for my gun. The pilot of that F15 was forced to get the job and will probably die before he finds me. Yes, rich people with private jets are insisting that their pilots be unvaxxed. That is, if they can fly the plane...

...because Secretary of Transportation Pete Buttigieg has now presided over a supply chain crisis, a railroad strike crisis, a holiday travel crisis, and a day when every plane in America was grounded. He does have an excuse...he was on maternity leave "breast feeding" his kid.

Oh, and in case you missed this one...despite claiming to have retired at the end of last year, Dr. Anthony Fauci remains on staff in the Government Health bureaucracy at the NIH and maintains his status as the highest paid bureaucrat in the federal government. Fauci has also secured an indefinite taxpayer-funded security detail. By the way facts are emerging about his role in the Covid fiasco, he's going to need some of those F15's.

Sex services are reportedly in high demand in Davos this week, with multiple publications reporting numerous prostitutes and escorts descending on the Swiss ski resort as it hosts the annual conference of the World Economic Forum. It would seem capitalism is not in any danger. John Kerry, however, says it's too late for the world as climate change dooms us. I guess they're living it up while they can?

Klaus Schwab, the founder and head of the World Economic Forum, is said to have a "god complex", and aims to run the organization until his death like a pope or monarch.

Not to be outdone, Seminarians from Barcelona say they were scandalized when Pope Francis reportedly used the f-word and other expletives at a papal audience in Rome because they were too "conservative".

The January 2020, Golden Globes, hosted by Ricky Gervais, drew 18.4 million viewers.

TV ratings for the January 2023, Golden Globes: 5.4 million.

Go woke go broke.

BTW: Golden Globes...isn't that a bit misogynist?

I tried, I really tried to find a movie on both HBO and Netflix (using "borrowed" access) but was at first disappointed and then a bit miffed that they had wasted the time I could have spent reading a good book.

Meanwhile, The Critics Choice Awards (whatever that is) aired Sunday night without much fanfare. The broadcast of the 28th annual ceremony drew 900,000 viewers, according to early Nielsen numbers.

That's a slight dip from last year when the ceremony had an audience of 1.1M.

The audience for these Hollyweird self aggrandizement shows is approaching the total population number of the Actor's Guild.

Will Smith may have had the right idea...start slapping these idiots until they wake up from woke.

Sometimes people come into your life. They have to stop doing that.

If Social Security is a joke, you probably won't get it.

The problem with wearing hearing aids is that people think you want to hear what they have to say.

We don't get smarter as we get older. We just run out of stupid things to do.

If carrots are so good for the eyes, how come I see so many dead rabbits on the highway?

Gone With The Wind opened two months before I was born and is still delighting audiences. So am I.

How to find out if you're old: Fall down. If they laugh, you're OK. If they run to help, you're old.

Why does everyone think elders are wise? Stupid people get old too.

The world is not full of assholes, but they are strategically placed so you'll run across one daily. That's. Every. Day.

Some of the best moments in life are the ones you can't tell anyone about.

Good judgement comes from experience. Experience comes from bad judgement.

Life is soup. I am a fork.

That last quote may reveal this chart as sarcasm. But are you sure?

Bureaucrats lie to keep their jobs.
Politicians lie to get reelected.
Doctors lie to get kickbacks from Big Pharma.
Hospitals lie to get government grants.

"Journalists" are clueless so they report all of these lies as the latest news and inflate the danger to get larger audiences and more money from advertisers.

There are two major industries focused on your body. One is the medical industry that wants to keep you alive. The other is the death industry that gets involved if the medical industry fails. Insurance companies pay your relatives if you die. Your family pays funeral companies if you die.

Group life insurance generally covers people 18 to 64-years-old. They are reporting a 40% increase in claims since the jobs started. Was it Covid or the job?

Let's ask the embalmers who are reporting strange clots found in the bodies of deceased people who had died for different reasons but had all received COVID-19 vaccines.

Maybe Dr. Fauci can shine some light on all this?

Until next week...

What's In Your Wallet?

Or purse...to be inclusive and non-misogynist. Seems I use my computer to pay bills which also show up on my computer. I do insist on paper bills through snail mail from some companies. They offer discounts if you pay with your computer. They also send me texts that the bill is available if I log onto their website. My main credit card is with a company I've used since 1962. I have savings accounts with two separate banks and a couple of ATM debit cards for those accounts. Any bill I pay with the credit card includes a cost of 3-5% charged by the credit card company to the company I pay. It's rare for me to actually write a check but I do when a favorite company, like the mechanic who keeps my car running, gets one to avoid the charge they pay if I use my credit card. I do keep some $20 bills in my wallet for tips to people like the Amazon driver who obviously had never received a tip. I told him he's the only reason Amazon is successful. I think I made his day. Where am I going with this? There's some real concern about Project Cedar. Do a search about this plot to destroy the US Dollar. If you dig into the details, you'll find we're already there. Wells Fargo just shut down a legitimate gun dealer.
