

The MN GOP has begun election strategy with almost a dozen Governor candidates at Scott County's "debate" where 300 people out of a population of 160,000 showed up to hear them talk about lowering taxes while Democrats try to start George Floyd.2 riots.

Most of the space on the GOP website begs for money. Their chair, Alex, makes sure his name is in the headline of all the word salad press releases they also offer on their website without a clue of how they can get people to read them. I wonder if they even wasted the stamps to send them to local media.

One of these days, and it did happen in the past, someone is going to refuse to kiss the MN GOP gang's ring and suggest they kiss a part of his anatomy and run as an independent with his own money.

MyPillow guy, Mike Lindell, was one of the 11 at that "debate". He came in fourth, according to the "official poll" of the 300 attendees. Mike has become an expert on election integrity and just might shake things up. First step would be to ignore the MN GOP. Filing Equal access federal lawsuits aimed at the media will get more eyeballs than those word salad press releases.

*All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.*

The last time I featured the sign language lady, I got banned from a social media website. Full explanation of that episode is an attachment to this issue of the newsletter labeled Nextdoor.

I am not making this up...

Minneapolis City Attorney's Office emailed staff inviting them to a 'healing circle' with 'therapy goats.' While Democrats fan the flames against ICE agents, city staff are being offered quiet reflection time with goats. This is Minneapolis. The email was signed by City Attorney Kristyn Anderson, who, naturally, made sure to include her (She/Her) pronouns in her official government signature block. With great restraint, I will refrain from any comments about goats and our Somalian visitors.

The Minneapolis City Staff have been subjected to this kind of crap before. A few years ago, they were "invited" to Sacred Conversations...you read that right...led by the City's Racial Equity Coordinators and the sacred conversations involved "the enslavement, resistance and continual push for liberation for African American people". The conversations were divided into two groups..."Black Bodied Staff" and "White Bodied Staff" ...over a four month period. I'm including a copy of the announcement as another attachment. Wonder what would have happened if the White Bodied staff didn't show up because they are actually pink.

Common sense, experience and history have taught us that election integrity is a myth yet here we are with proof it doesn't exist. There is no way Minnesota politicians could consistently win elections when the blatant hypocrisy and lies have become more egregious. The George Floyd kangaroo court for the four police officers and they can't understand the wave of retirements and low recruitment of police officers to a level well below that mandated by the City's charter. In other words, they are breaking the law by not hiring more. At one precinct, two officers show up for work while the shift requires ten officers. The rest are planning on paid leave prompted by a law Timmy got passed but forgot to exclude police.

They are building walls in MPLS again just like the George Floyd days. Just a street corner for now since their current martyr was a white woman? Weird tactic for a group that hates the border wall Trump installed.

Watch this one...may be Trump's first step in getting rid of the UN:

President Donald Trump's proposed international Board of Peace, a new body initially tasked with overseeing the next steps in Gaza's rebuilding, seeks $1 billion in individual national contributions to secure a seat at the table with the joint aim of resolving conflicts. The fee secures permanent membership on the Trump-led intergovernmental organization instead of a three-year appointment, which has no contribution requirement. A long list of other countries are also looking to consider the cost/benefit of such a transaction, including Australia, Jordan, Greece, Cyprus and Pakistan. Canada, Turkey, Egypt, Paraguay, Argentina and Albania have said they were invited. Trump supporter Hungarian PM Viktor Orbán has also accepted.

U.S. Senate candidate Rep. Angie Craig (D-MN) claimed that ICE is "trying to ratchet things up on the streets. They want a riot. They want this to go sideways. And every single Republican in office in Minnesota should stand with me and call for ICE to stand down in Minnesota. That's what would make us more safe." Since Somalis frown on lesbians, Angie has to work harder to gain their votes. And maybe some of that daycare money. She faces a primary against the former MN Senate leader and the current LtGov. With more expected to jump in which gives credence to the call for election integrity in Minnesota. The Democrats think the Senate seat belongs to them.

Minnesota (first elected) Transgender State Rep. Leigh Finke Calls on the Anti-ICE Protestors to Storm More Churches.

Well of course she/he/it does. Say that real fast.

She can share a cell with Don Lemon.

Gov. Gavin Newsom (D-CA) became testy and ranted about world leaders not standing up to President Donald Trump at the World Economic Forum (WEF) in Davos, Switzerland. Did CA taxpayers pay for his ticket and lodging? Can CA Republican taxpayers sue for reimbursement?

Jamael Lundy, the intergovernmental affairs coordinator for the Hennepin County Attorney's Office, is one of the Soros sponsored protesters who took over a church service and screamed "shut it down", is married to a St. Paul councilwoman, is running for state Senate, and runs HOMES FOR HOMIES taking Section 8 money and steering it to black criminals and claims to be a business owner on his website. Maybe it's time to audit the budgets and see how many of these useful idiots are employed while the funding for police is a target by the people getting the salaries that should be going to law enforcement to prevent illegal protests like this.

The rot in MN seems to be confined to the Twin Cities.

Tidbits

(a small and particularly interesting item of gossip or information)

President Trump has already deported enough illegal aliens in Minnesota for this blue state to LOSE a Congressional seat.

A group of liberal white women squatted in a Target store in St. Paul DEMANDING Target stop letting ICE and Border Patrol agents use their bathrooms.

I guess their husbands were at home with the kids because the teachers union closed the schools because of the ICE danger.

A GAO report shows that the U.S. loses between $233 billion and $521 billion annually to fraud, based on data from 2018-2022.

DOJ Will Charge Don Lemon under the Ku Klux Klan Act for the protest at a church. The KKK Act makes it illegal to threaten, hurt, or intimidate people to prevent them from exercising their God-given rights.

Democrat run cities: Memphis and Minneapolis. ICE went to both. In Memphis, the mayor asked the police to cooperate with ICE. The result: ICE was in and out of Memphis in a matter of days. The mayor admitted, they did a good job and his city was safer.

Border Patrol reports the lowest number of illegal border crossers at the southwest border in U.S. History, 95% lower than the first quarter average under Biden.
