

Recipe Corner
Bacon Cheddar Quiche

Ingredients

- 1 refrigerated pie crust
- 1 cup 1/2 n 1/2
- 5 eggs
- 8 slices bacon, cooked
- 1 cup shredded cheddar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper

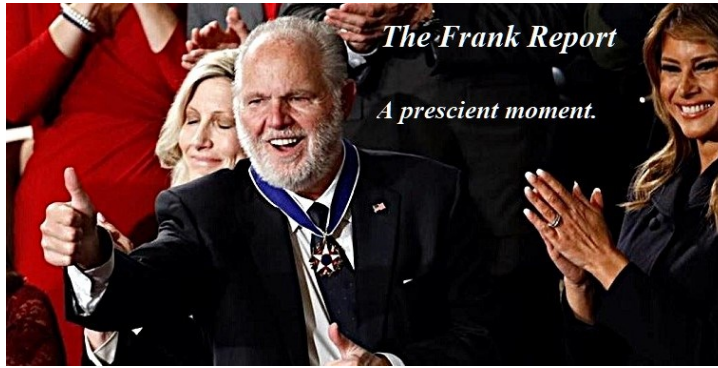

Directions

Preheat the oven to 350 F. Combine the milk, eggs, bacon, cheddar cheese, salt, and pepper in a large bowl. Whisk well.

Pour the mixture in prepared pie pan. Bake for 35 minutes, or until egg mixture is set and crust is golden brown. Let cool, then slice and serve.

Bake the bacon...place strips on cookie sheet then into a cold oven...set at 400 degrees and then leave it alone for 14-17 minutes. Save the rendered fat.

Was going to photograph the entire thing but most of it disappeared soon after baking. The eggs are from David's chickens (my son's FiL). He calls them Obama eggs.

All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

I'm sure Rush saw what was coming once Trump was back:

President Donald Trump's administration has moved to end affirmative action in federal contracting and directed that all federal diversity, equity and inclusion staff be put on paid leave and eventually be laid off.

President Donald Trump tapped a former Space Force lieutenant colonel — who was fired after publicly criticizing the military's diversity programs and alleged leftist and Marxist ideology in the ranks — to be the Air Force's next undersecretary. Karma!

Trump administration is considering bringing back DNA testing while detaining "families" because it's likely 1/3 of them aren't families after all, as was proven in El Paso; first administration.

President Donald Trump ordered a broad assault on US offshore wind development including a freeze in permitting the massive renewable power projects. Trump also ruled out the sale of new wind leases across all of the nation's coastal waters, invoking the same legal predecessors used to stop offshore oil drilling.

Trump's directive labels DEI teachings as "dangerous, demeaning, and immoral," arguing that such initiatives promote race and sex-based preferences under the guise of promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion. The order cites the Supreme Court's decision in Students for Fair Admissions, Inc. v. President and Fellows of Harvard College, which ruled against race-based admissions practices, as a legal justification for this overhaul.

Trump has appointed Sean Curran, who led his security detail for four years, to lead the Secret Service. Curran was among the Secret Service agents who sprung to cover Trump after he was struck by a bullet from a would-be assassin at a campaign rally July 13 in Butler, Pennsylvania.

Trump has ordered a communications blackout at America's federal health agencies. The CDC, FDA, HHS and NIH have all been told to pause external communications: publishing scientific reports, updating websites or issuing health advisories.

Jerry Nadler has been making a fashion statement for years...

...looks like it's catching on. NY is new fashion capital?

From 1.30.2021 newsletter:

Joe and Jill Biden arrived at the White House after their inauguration (insertion?) and found the doors locked and nobody to answer their knocking.

They fired the butler and forgot to replace him.

Biden's executive order that halted construction on the Keystone XL pipeline led to the immediate layoffs of an estimated 10,000 union jobs and 40-60,000 auxiliary jobs. Ninety million in fees also eliminated for the poorest areas of Montana and Native Americans in the area.

ICE agents instructed to free all detainees in their custody, as Biden halts deportations.

Biden removes any legal recognition of the two sexes and eliminates protections for women in the federal government.

*(Previous newsletters are available on the website.
Scary and hilarious looking back.)*

Say goodbye to Deep State: Trump reinstated a policy to strip employment protections from tens of thousands of federal workers, potentially allowing his administration to reshape agencies by stocking them with political loyalists. The executive order was one of multiple first-day Trump directives aimed at overhauling the federal workforce of 2.3 million including a hiring freeze, a strict return-to-office mandate, an update of hiring rules and changes designed to bring accountability to career senior executives, in part by making them easier to dismiss.

No more anchor babies: Trump executive order bans anchor babies under 14th Amendment. The 14th Amendment has always excluded from birthright citizenship persons who were born in the United States but not "subject to the jurisdiction thereof."

No more foreign workers: There were 386k H-1B visas approved last year - not 85k, and 72% were Indian. This is a direct result of the Indian govt policy along with massive private Indian corruption, fraud and abuse of the system. The Indian government has identified 18,000 emigrants living in the US illegally that it intends to repatriate.

Tidbits

(a small and particularly interesting item of gossip or information)

Minneapolis, Minnesota Teachers Union has passed a new contract protecting teachers from layoffs but EXCLUDES white people.

All whites will be fired first.

(Wouldn't bet on it!)

Secretary of State, Marco Rubio, is issuing an order to all State Department personnel effectively ending COVID-era work-from-home guidelines and ordering them all back to work in person at the State Department.

In 1954, members of the Puerto Rican Nationalist Party shot 5 Congressmen during an immigration debate on the floor of the United States House of Representatives.

Jimmy Carter commuted their lifetime prison sentences in 1979.

In 1983, Weathermen affiliates bombed the US Senate (as well as several other government buildings). Clinton pardoned the perpetrators his last day in office.
