

Nick Shirley, an independent journalist, spent one day confirming the day care fraud in the MN Somalian community. His 43 minute report reached over 100 million views on YouTube.

That number is for just YouTube as the report is also all over the internet.

Total U.S. daily newspaper circulation (print and digital combined) is 21 million for both weekday and Sunday editions while employing 104,290 people, a 70% decrease over 15 years.

The Minnesota Star Tribune has NOT reported on the fraud scandal but HAS favorably covered all of MN Gov Timmy Tampon's press events.

All the news I see fit to print.

Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

"Salam Alaikum. My name's Peggy Flanagan. I am the Lieutenant Governor of Minnesota, and I'm really honored and humbled to be here with all of you today. I am incredibly clear that the Somali community is part of the fabric of the state of Minnesota. I will continue to stand with the Somali community, to be with you, and to do all I can to return the friendship and community that the Somali community has shown me," Flanagan said.

Now, allow me to read between the lines: she's going to run for either Governor or US Senate and could really use some of their money and help with ballot harvesting skills the Somalian community demonstrated by getting Ilhan Omar elected.

Here's a snapshot of just how much money they have:

Somali healthcare scammers may have stolen more than $9 billion in taxpayer money in Minnesota. Nick Shirley is an Independent investigative reporter. "We uncovered over $110,000,000 in ONE day". Nick canvassed daycare centers, one with a sign that misspelled "learning" and had no children yet claimed to have 102 children in a room that couldn't hold more than a dozen. They got $2.66 million this year in funding and $2.5 million last year. Nick asked the lady who answered the door where the kids were. She slammed the door in his face.

As bad as Minnesota got hit, check out what California Governor Gavin Newscom accomplished:

A 92-page report by the California State Auditor has found that over $70 billion in taxpayer funds have been lost, including $2.5 billion in SNAP fraud, $24 billion on fighting homelessness, and $18 billion for a high-speed rail where not a single track has been laid. The state also misplaced $32 billion in covid unemployment funds. Now, the Feds want it back so the state is making all employers pay it back, although none (nor their employees) ever saw a dollar of it. What a guy that Gavin is!

In 2007, while serving as mayor of San Francisco, Newscom acknowledged an affair with Ruby Rippey Gibney, the wife of his close friend and campaign manager, Alex Tourk. He "recovered" from that and went on to be elected Governor so he could screw the entire state.

Book Review

This is Baldacci's 1995 debut novel that caught the eye of Clint Eastwood. He had William Goldman dig through the plot to come up with a screenplay that would work for Eastwood who was producer and director of the film as well as the star. If you do a search on Goldman, you'll find he was the best in the business and up to the task. The end result was a two-fer...a great book and an above average movie. Read the book and then watch the movie to see how Hollywood dumbs down a plot apparently figuring the average audience isn't up to the book's plot. Baldacci survived and now has over 150 million books sold in 45 languages...and counting.

First of six in his King and Maxwell series. Got all at about $5 each at thriftbooks rather than $10-15 each for kindle.

Highly recommend.

All those people driving by Gov Walz house hollering "retarded" may be correct. Maybe Tampon Tim didn't know about all that Somalian day care fraud.

Jodi Harpstead (left) ran the agency overseeing daycare centers in Minnesota from 2019-2024. Tikki Brown ran the agency overseeing daycare centers in Minnesota from 2024-Present. Both had salaries in excess of $100,000.00. Only a retarded governor would hire these two?

Remember how shocked everyone was when Kamala Harris strangely chose quirky Tim Waltz as her VP running mate?

What if it wasn't a strange decision at all and a calculation based on access to billions of dollars of Somali fraud money that could be funneled to her Presidential campaign or personal finances?

This guy ain't dead yet. There are a couple of countries that would like to get their hands on him. Here's what he's been up to here:

Soros-backed NGO is teaching DC residents how to sneak onto juries and rig trials against President Trump and his administration. A newly formed Washington DC group called Free DC, tied to Community Change & Community Change Action, is training residents to act as "skeptical jurors" in federal cases involving President Trump. Co-founder Alex Dodds said jurors have "enormous power" to judge the administration itself. The sessions encourage rigging trials against the Trump administration, conduct plainly illegal but underway.
