

House Stuff

Reminder to switch your ceiling fans to clockwise for winter to draw the warm air back down from the ceiling. The one shown is a small two foot blade radius that will replace a normal light bulb. I've installed two at about $25 each. The neat feature is a wireless remote that controls the light and speed. You can even select type of light from daylight to soft and the remote has a timer.

That's a quarter at the right to show size of the remote...which can get lost even sooner than your TV remote.

Saw it first on TEMU but AMAZON is now matching their prices. Interesting that both outlets are using the same factory in China. Bet AMAZON ordered a ton to keep their fast delivery creds intact.

All the news I see fit to print. Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

Kamala Harris brags about giving hurricane victims $750 after Ukraine got $4605 per person. That $750 is a LOAN to the victims! Maybe they should request help from Zelensky? OK, it was $50 more than the Maui wildfire victims got. FEMA Disaster Relief Fund monthly report reveals that nearly $4 BILLION was spent on "COVID-19 aid...spent on a fake pandemic that's been over for years while Helene victims are struggling. Over half-a-million pounds of supplies have been delivered to western North Carolina by volunteers flying private helicopters after Hurricane Helene. An unmarked helo hovered so close to a North Carolina distribution site that supplies were destroyed. FEMA has also parked their helos on a runway that was being used by civilians to fly supplies to stricken areas. FEMA has abandoned the tiny town of Bat Cave, North Carolina citing a "road closed" sign as the reason for their absence. The report came from a local resident who simply drove around the sign to reach FEMA "helpers" who told her they were not allowed to drive around the sign. "This has been a civilian-run operation since day one," she said. "Nobody's been bringing in supplies except civilians." Authorities have threatened to arrest a former law enforcement officer turned volunteer pilot, Jordan Seidhom, as he undertook life-saving rescue missions for stranded families. National Guard and active duty military are starting to show up but seem to be standing around holding their weapons. They looking for Republicans?

Needless to say, the "relief" offered by FEMA has been, to misquote a military term...a real fustercluck.

FEMA just sent three pallets of electric chain saws to North Carolina...power is out and not expected to be restored for at least couple of weeks. FEMA also provided instructions on how to request those $750 loans by phone or computer.

FEMA Is Supposed to Respond to Disasters, Not Be One.

And, we're looking at the hurricane about to hit Florida.

Book Report

Dr. Michael Palmer authored 19 books after reading Robin Cook's Coma. He figured he might be able to match it...and did he ever! His son Daniel used his dad's notes and continued with three more after his dad died in 2013. I've read 14 with another five ordered. Needless to say, his books are addictive and will keep you up late if you start one in the evening.

Yes...I ordered it. She will be very visible in the last days of the campaign and has comments sure to raise eyebrows and warn the Lame Stream Media. Her TV appearances have been on quasi-fair shows and she hasn't tempered any of her remarks. Do not underestimate this lady.

So far this year, the United States has given:

- $24,400,000,000 to Ukraine.
- $11,300,000,000 to Israel.
- $1,950,000,000 to Ethiopia.

- $1,100,000,000 to Somalia.
- $1,000,000,000 to Yemen.
- $987,000,000 to Congo.
- $896,000,000 to Syria.
- $9,000 per illegal immigrant that has entered the U.S. (1.4 million so far this year).

And Americans who have lost everything to Hurricane Helene will be getting $750, courtesy of FEMA. AS A LOAN!

Two devastating hurricanes and thousands of victims. Have you heard about any country or any of their citizens sending aid of any kind? Maybe FEMA has given us a new idea...make all foreign aid a LOAN. If they don't pay it back, we can collect it through tariffs on the stuff they sell here. Meanwhile, civilians are smuggling in aid past FEMA who is arresting those caught. FEMA confiscates the aid being smuggled. I wouldn't be surprised if FEMA brought in Haitian illegals to eat the pack mules being used.

Most conspiracy theories are proven to be correct.
Here’s the latest:

Where it concerns the formation, intensification and direction of weaponized Hurricane Helene, the geoterrorists have again used their highly advanced geoengineering technologies to further perfect the chemical geoengineering and HAARP-frequency techniques, as well as to integrate the NEXRAD Doppler radar station transmitters and moisture-producing power plants into their hurricane manufacturing repertoire utilizing sophisticated techniques such as Cloud Ionization, Electric Rainmaking and Laser-guided Weather Modification. Satellite-based Lasers are becoming more prevalent in space just as Ionospheric Heaters are on the ground such as the facility in Puerto Rico which is quite similar to HAARP in Alaska.”
