Robert Kennedy Jr. argues that powerful figures, including Bill Gates and the World Economic Forum, have “hijacked geoengineering” for agendas that prioritize social control rather than solutions to environmental challenges. “They aggravate the problem then sell the solution. In recent years, the concept of chemtrails, geoengineering, and weather modification has shifted from the fringes of conspiracy theory into mainstream conversation. With the U.S. government’s revealing its “Five Year Geoengineering Study Plan,” and the USDA’s detailed report on cloud seeding, it is becoming increasingly clear that weather modification is not theoretical; it is a reality.

Climate alarmist claims about the “unprecedented” nature of recent storms. However, four happened before the year 1900. The Great Galveston hurricane of 1900 killed the most, up to 12,000. Only Katrina (1,200 dead in Louisiana, 2005) and Maria (2,975 dead in Puerto Rico, 2017) occurred within the last three decades.

“They” tell us the sun is bad for us and we should use sunscreen. They “they” tell us that the sun is a source of vitamin D and we should get some every day. Of course, “they” also told us that nine out of ten doctors prefer Camel cigarettes.

The following explains just how large that gang has grown.

The state of Florida had a population of 22,610,726 as of July 2023, according to the U.S. Census Bureau. That ranked third among all states — exceeded only by Texas, which had a population of 30,503,301; and California, which had a population of 38,965,193. As of this September, federal, state and local governments in this country employed a record total of 23,421,000, according to Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Elon Musk fired 70% of the “workers” when he bought Twitter. The X website is doing better than Twitter.

Connect the dots as Trump has asked Elon to join him.
Unemployment about to get a drastic rise?

I actually watched the whole 28 minute interview of Kamala by Bret Baier. She was actually screeching about that bad guy Trump to the point where I thought she was going to pull out that Glock she claims to own. Bret was caught clinching his fist and looked like he was going to come out of his chair and smack her for wasting his time and talking over him as he asked questions she couldn’t answer nor understand. It was truly a demonstration of why she has been kept far away from any reputable journalist...of which Bret is just on the fringe.

Buckle up for the next few weeks!

Remember this young man? The Lame Stream Media is trying to forget him. Deadspin is a sports podcast I’ve never heard of until they picked on Holden Armenta in the crowd at a game and Deadspin “journalist” Carron Phillips ranted about this horrible racist “blackface” kid. Turns out the Chiefs fan Holden is of Native American descent and belongs to the Chumash tribe, where his grandfather serves on the Tribal board. A Delaware judge has refused to dismiss a defamation lawsuit against the sports website Deadspin and it looks like Holden’s college tuition is more than assured. I first reported on this back in February 17th (available at the website) and it looks like Deadspin will live up to its name as it has been sold but the lawsuit is still active.

Ooops!

The Lame Stream Media has finally met their match in J.D. Vance. Their audience is shrinking and the only visibility they are getting are video clips on the internet of their humiliation as the spotlight is shining bright on their smug questions being slapped down with facts and interviews blowing up in their faces. The chart above is a running scorecard. A Trump supporting billionaire (Larry Ellison) is in the process of buying CBS. The deal won't be done until next year but it just might even the playing field as he shitcans the woke and biased "journalists" currently employed. Coupled with Elon Musk buying Twitter, we just might see the beginning of journalism's rebirth and my journalism professors can stop rolling in their graves.

Until then, this remains hanging upside down in my bathroom...above the toilet:

Tidbits

(a small and particularly interesting item of gossip or information)

Minneapolis police said they arrested six children — three males ages 11, 12, and 13 years old, and three females ages 12 and 14 years old — after three armed robberies and a pair of crashes on Interstate 94.

Biden-Harris DOJ Goes After Landlords That Use Criminal Background Checks to Screen Renters, Accuses Them of Race Discrimination (what assumptions have been made by DOJ or are criminals a new "race"?).

UN transferred $1.3 Billion in cash to Hamas for weapons. Bet it was US dollars.

Judge Cannon revealed that it was JOE BIDEN who ordered the FBI access to the Mar-a-Lago documents and President Trump's personal belongings. They took his will, planted documents and probably sniffed Melania's underwear.

WHO Admits Monkeypox Is 'Side Effect' of Covid 'Vaccine'.

Tim Walz went pheasant hunting on the MN opener for a photo op but forgot his gun and vest.

FEMA has distributed only 2% of the over $20 billion in disaster relief funding from Congress. Bet you know where the rest is.

Until next week...
