

The Biden administration wants to provide 5.7 million migrants with free medical services, food, and housing. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) currently oversees the record number of migrants in the U.S. The number is 2.4 million more than before Biden took office.

A group of 50 Syrian men crossed the Arizona border in one day, all of them without families. How did they get from Syria to here? Who paid for their flights?

FBI warns of Hamas copycat terror attacks on US soil and urges public to watch out for 'lone actors' amid a 'heightened environment' of fear following deaths of 1,200 Israelis. Chris Wray made the comments at a gathering of police in San Diego.

All the news I see fit to print. Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

The dumbing down of America:

The TSA agents at airports ask millions of passengers that famous question: "Has anyone put anything in your baggage without your knowledge?" Most will answer “no” and go merrily on their way. How many will respond with a question of their own: "If it was without my knowledge, how would I know?" Of course, a strip search could follow.

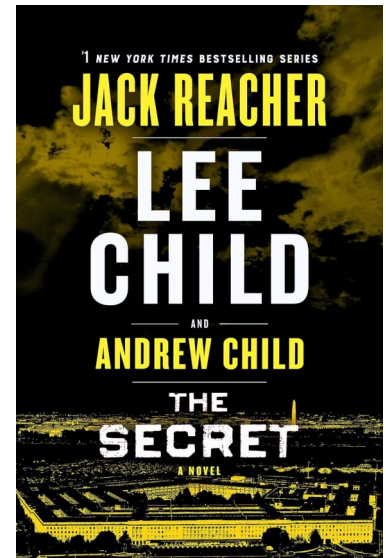

Generations have been forced to give up part of their paycheck to Social Security. At the same time, they government hopes you die before they have to give back ALL of the money they took from every one of your paychecks using the mandatory SSA deduction. The monthly cost of Medicare Part B will increase $9.80, or 6%, to $174.70 from $164.90 in 2023. This is an automatic deduction from your SSA payment. The Social Security payments will rise 3.2% for the cost of living adjustment (COLA) which is a fraction of the actual 17.4% inflation rate. Do the math and you’ll find they always take more than they return to you from the money they deduct. The government also controls the education system and math skills have disappeared.

The Biden administration said it is forgiving $9 billion in student debt for 125,000 borrowers, even after the Supreme Court invalidated the administration's plan for broad-based student loan forgiveness, which would have included more than 40 million. The lucky recipients all work for politicians. Funny how that works.

The Pfizer mRNA injection caused more than 1,200 deaths reported and tens of thousands of reported adverse events, (that we know of), within the first two months of its release in mid-December 2020. There were also 23 reported cases of spontaneous abortions out of 270 pregnancies and more than 2,000 reports of cardiac disorders. Biden just allocated $50 million for more of the vaccines. I guess there are citizens who do not know the difference between “bear arms” and “bare arms”.

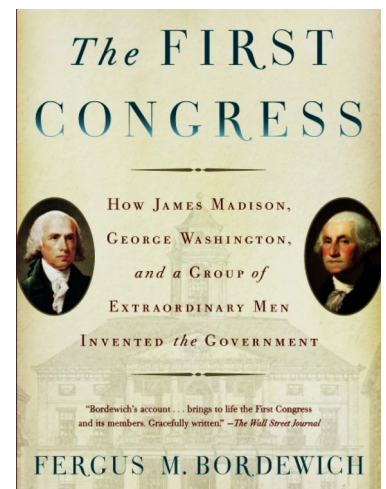

Then there’s the CIA whistleblower that informed Congress that the intelligence agency bribed five of its own agents with cash to assert that Covid did not come from China.

God help us! The government won’t.

Book Report

No, I haven’t read it because it will not be released until October 24. I’m re reading some of the older, specially Bad Luck and Trouble because it is the basis for Season Two of Reacher on Prime. That will release in December according to a sneak preview during the Prime Day promotions on their website.

As Yogi Berra said: “It’s deja vue all over again”. This historian brings history alive with a very simple narrative. The book explains how the very first session of Congress was as complicated and comical as any today. He has several books available; highly recommend.

CURMUDGEON QUOTES

Bread is like the sun.
It rises in the yeast

The battle for Speaker of the House is an example of how fund raising takes priority. Committee assignments by the Speaker are rewards for fund raising prowess. The Speaker also controls the allocation of funds raised. Each member of both caucuses have been given a fund raising goal to go into a central fund for allocation by party "leaders". Maybe reforms that limit the times when fundraising can be conducted might re-orient both parties toward accomplishing legislative goals — not glancing up at a fundraising scoreboard.

The speaker should be working for the American people not Democrats and RINOs who are beholden to lobbyists and fund raisers.

What will you believe...the truth based on common sense or the lie that has been created and supported with billions of dollars. Example: why does the Lame Stream Media support COVID vaccination? Is it because 75% of their advertising revenue comes from Big Pharma?

Republicans missed a great opportunity when they didn't elect Trump Speaker of the House. Can you imagine Pelosi's reaction if he started to tear up all the paper on the desk?

It has been worse...read the second book in this week's book report. Congress ain't pretty, but it seems to work out in the end.
