Fried Rice with Beef

As we slowly get back to normal, here's a quick and easy recipe with four steps:

Cut up round steak into cubes. Place in Ziploc bag and add some wine, orange juice, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper then overnight in refrigerator to marinate.

1/2 cup rice in cup of water; add a tsp of Tone's vegetable base.

Minced garlic, chopped onion and sweet peppers.

Cup of frozen vegetables (the steam and cook kind are best).

Now to bring it all together:

Fry the beef until half cooked. Add the garlic, onion and sweet peppers. About 3-4 minutes later add the vegetables. After another few minutes, add the cooked rice. Soy sauce to taste and stir until hot. Toss in some cashews too.

Works well with leftover pork, beef or even shrimp. I found Tone's base on Amazon...they have different flavors I use in place of canned.

Remember when you bury a body cover it with endangered plants so it will be illegal for anybody to dig it up.

Housekeeping Tip: in case any of the BLM or ANTIFA idiots show up in your neighborhood. Add a picket fence and declare it a Safe Space.

All the news I see fit to print.

Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

It's 75 degrees in MN on election day. That darn climate change is forcing people to come out of their basements and vote. 11/4: PA has 1M votes uncounted while Trump ahead by 700,000...but "they" will not call PA for Trump. As Stalin once said: "Elections are not won by those who vote. They are won by those who count the votes." SCOTUS may repeat the 2000 election scenario? Meanwhile, pundits are telling us what's happening but suspiciously ignore the vote totals as they yammer on. It seems the term pollster will join the ranks of ridicule with journalist and fact checker after this bizarre election. In other news, the CDC has decided NOT to track seasonal flu statistics this year. Gee...maybe years of having a flu vaccine and addition of mandatory masks made it go away? Or maybe need the count for Covid?

Book Report

Good friend of Lee Child; shares story ideas and she has series focused on Jack Reacher. This is her debut novel. Check her background; obviously well admired by other authors in the genre. Her style reminds me of Lee's brother Andrew.

Dr. Michael Marshall sent this one to me and now I have another author to follow and half dozen books to read. This one gets into cloning humans and provides a great thriller.

While people were bitching and moaning about long election day lines, my grandson Shane was finishing USMC Boot Camp at Parris Island, SC. For vet readers, his 0600 MOS has him at 29 Palms, CA for training in wide field of communications. He scored very high on the aptitude tests so future looks bright for him both in and out of military service; their schools are great!

Shane's Uncle Chris gave him some gun handling lessons... first of several trips to the gun range I belong to. Paid off as Shane scored at boot camp with an Expert Rifle designation he can proudly wear on his uniform.

No need to expound upon the election results that are heading towards the Supreme Court...funny how that always happens when the Democrats don't win. Al Gore did not concede the 2000 election until Dec 13 and the Lame Stream Media encouraged him. Trump told by the Lame Stream Media to concede Nov 5. Will the sheer volume of voter fraud overwhelm the system? "They" have had four years to plan this...Trump has a few days to counter it with a legal system that has produced zero indictments except of Trump allies. After the smoke clears, I would suggest two first steps: Voter ID laws strictly enforced and repeal of the 17th amendment. Meanwhile, turn off your TV and avoid social media.
Hope for the best but plan for the worst.

Yep...I have taught myself how to create memes. It's harder than writing articles because you have to condense everything into a few words to complement the picture. Reminds me of one of my favorite Mark Twain quotes: "Please forgive this long letter. I didn't have time to write a short one."

First time voters may be interested in how Democrats are repeating history hoping nobody remembers. They've gone from "hanging chads" to outright fraud:

President Donald J. Trump led the most well-attended rallies in history is somehow neck-in-neck with Joe Biden who had trouble attracting a dozen people.

In Michigan, President Trump's lead disappeared in the middle of the night as 100,000 Biden votes magically appeared with every single vote for Biden.

In Wisconsin and Detroit, more ballots than registered voters. One of those voters born in 1823.

Atlanta, GA poll workers opened envelopes from China's SF Express, which does not pick up in the U.S. The fake ballots can be exposed by missing official watermarks.

Why the huge push by the Democrats now? They know that if they can get rid of Trump, the Republican party will disappear without him leaving the Democrats in total control...forever.
