- 1/2 cup diced onion
- 1 bay leaf

Whisk in the flour and mustard and keep it moving for about five minutes. Make sure it's free of lumps. Stir in the milk, onion, bay leaf, and paprika. Simmer for ten minutes and remove the bay leaf. Temper in the egg. Stir in 3/4 of the cheese. Season with salt and pepper. Fold the macaroni into the mix and pour into a 2-quart casserole dish. Top with remaining cheese. All the news I see fit to print.

Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

Apparently that glass ceiling exists only in the Democrat party. Susan Wiles is President Trump's Chief of Staff. You don't get access to Trump unless you pass muster with Susan.

Even Musk found that out even though he has a small office in the White House. She's keeping Trump's schedule tight and focused on all the promises he is currently delivering.

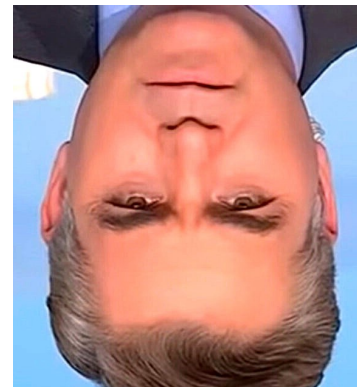

White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt came out swinging in her opening statement in the first Trump Admin 2.0 press briefing. The Lame Stream Media was VERY nervous when new members of the press corps included real journalists from the internet press like Breitbart.

Breitbart News Washington Bureau Chief Matthew Boyle had the opportunity to ask one of the first questions at the first White House press briefing of the new administration, as the Trump White House made it clear that it is restoring press passes to journalists revoked during the previous administration and opening up the briefing room to new media voices.

www.breitbart.com is their website if you haven't found them. Gateway Pundit is there too...www.thegatewaypundit.com.

One of the interesting news she provided: the drones were authorized by Biden's Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) for research and various other purposes. She emphasized that other drones were operated by hobbyists and private individuals, stating, "In time, it got worse due to curiosity. This was not the enemy." Well...maybe the "enemy" used this to track your eyeballs from what Biden was doing in his last ditch efforts to screw America and hinder Trump?

"Wow, really good news!" Trump said. "Jim Acosta, one of the worst and most dishonest reporters in journalistic history, a major sleazebag, has been relegated by CNN Fake News to the Midnight hour, because of extraordinarily BAD RATINGS (and no talent!). "Word is that he wants to QUIT, and that would be even better. "Jim is a major loser who will fail no matter where he ends up. Good luck Jim!" Trump called his shot as Brian "Tater Head" Stelter posted Acosta's resignation.

Guess Jim lost his buddies at the press room and couldn't face up to reality. He's going to start posting on the internet and get people to sign up and pay for his opinions. Reality is really going to hit him if he thinks this will solve his major problem: an ego so large it squishes his brain.

CURMUDEON QUOTES

2025 is getting spooky. I haven't yet mistakenly written 2024.

Why do they say cows are bad for the environment. They just eat plants and fart; like vegans.

New study confirms cats can't spread Covid but would if given the option.

Are they giving away guns in those gun free zones?

You can't fix stupid. But you can manipulate it. Just ask CNN.

I sat quietly with my thoughts. I'm never ever going to do that again!

Reminder: tradition is nothing more than peer pressure from dead people.

I'm not a grouchy old man. I've reached an age where I stopped being polite and started being honest.

Hollyweird people make believe they are other people. They call it acting. Outside of their bubble, it would be called a mental disorder.

Politicians are hard to ignore, but it's well worth the effort.

Everyone thinks it. I say it.

You are NOT gonna believe this "stuff"...

The federal government is owed $1.9 trillion in overdue loans. There are also $87 billion worth of defaulted loan guarantees owed to the federal government. Further analysis identified at least 120 federal government lending programs and at least 15 different agencies that administer such loans. One way that policymakers could unwind the government's massive lending operation is by requiring federal agencies to sell these outstanding loans to willing buyers in the private market. This policy would also provide up to $1 trillion in deficit relief that could be used to cut the deficit and fund White House and Congressional priorities without new taxes.

President Trump has requested Elon and SpaceX to go get the astronauts that have been abandoned on the International Space Station months on end. "I have just asked Elon Musk and @SpaceX to "go get" the two brave astronauts, Suni Williams and Butch Wilmore, who have been virtually abandoned in space since June 2024 by the Biden Administration. Elon will soon be on his way. Hopefully, all will be safe. Good luck Elon!!!"

Several Lame Stream Media "journalists" have been asking why Trump can't get lower prices for eggs. They got slapped alongside the head with the answer: Because Biden slaughtered more than 100 million chickens because he thought they had bird flu.

Same "journalists" ask if criminals will be deported first. Answer: if they snuck in they are illegal which means they are all criminals.

Apparently...You can't fix stupid.
