

Recipe Corner

Daughter Susan, Ronnie and Shane on their way from Boston for grandpa's pizza.

It's a complicated recipe but I'll send it to anybody as a separate email attachment. Roselee once said I should open a restaurant; I countered with the question of who would pay over $40 for a pizza? Gracie has added shortcake to the menu when we have pizza.

Mexican restaurant welcomed us.

All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

NEWS FLASH:

ROKU predicts that by 2024, half of all U.S. homes have never had cable TV or will have canceled their subscription. That means CNN no longer gets $2 from those cancelled cable bills. Their average viewership is less than 1 million but still get $500,000 from cable companies. ROKU available for about $30...one time.

Government will create new taxes to buy and plant trees with deeper roots to prevent the tectonic plates from crashing into each other. Bernie Sanders added an addendum that every other tree should grow the money he has promised his supporters.

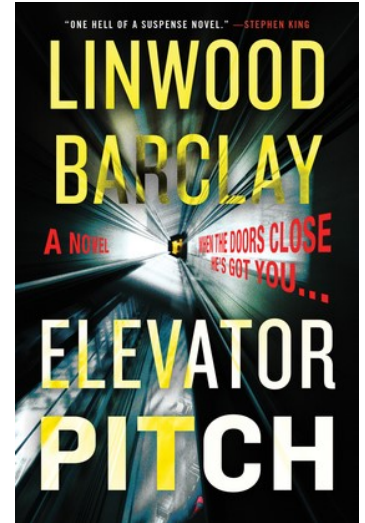

"Guam is almost ready to tip over" says Hank Johnson, D-Ga. His concern focused on too many people on the Island. In reality, the shift of the magnetic poles are causing new volcanic eruptions. Government will provide entitlements to those citizens who will face north and then lean left. Only citizens who own Obama phones will qualify.

Former Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich expressed his gratitude to President Donald Trump for commuting his 14-year prison sentence on Tuesday, declaring himself a "Trumpocrat." Over 11 years ago, the FBI interviewed Barack Obama about the sale of his Senate seat in Illinois. There is an FBI "302" report of the interview. Rather than releasing that document, the DOJ has fought Judicial Watch tooth and nail to keep the document secret. I'm guessing President Trump is playing 3D chess again. The Democrats and Lame Stream Media are reading the rules for checkers?

Book Report

Plot laid out with obvious villain identified. Weird twist at end. Kept reading just to find out how he would finish the book. Regret I interrupted my JDM binge.

For my fellow Travis McGee fans...this is what JDM envisioned as the "Busted Flush" houseboat moored at slip F-18 at Bahia Mar.

Do it yourself projects are always fun. My humidifier on the furnace gave up, complete with flashing red light telling me to call the dealer. Service call would be $180 plus parts. Took it apart and read the owners manual. The new media from Amazon with one day shipping was $12.39. A gallon of vinegar to soak the parts to get rid of the lime and calcium buildup while waiting for the new media was $3. Knowing my kids can do this too...priceless.

In defense of that $180 price:

If I do a job in 30 minutes, it's because I spent 10 years learning how to do that in 30 minutes. You owe me for the years, not the minutes.

When I turned 80, I discovered I no longer needed glasses. I drink straight from the bottle now.

You may know I'm binge reading the 21 Travis McGee books. He mentions some of his favorite adult beverages by brand name. I checked my liquor cabinet and discovered two of them: Metaxa, a Greek brandy and Plymouth gin. Highly recommend both. My Miata is no match for his pickup truck...Miss Agnes.

Not to be confused with religious leaders who tell us who to vote for or the politicians who tell us which God to pray to?

For some reason (42 years in prison?) CNN no longer has this guy on.
