Beer Batter for Fish

With fishing season on the horizon, here's my favorite Walleye beer batter:

Ingredients

- 1 cup flour
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1 teaspoon lemon pepper
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 cup beer
- 1 or 2 eggs, as desired

Directions

- Combine eggs and beer, then mix in dry ingredients. Stir. Batter is too thick if it sticks to a finger without dripping slightly, too thin if it runs off. Add more beer or more flour.
- Prepare fillets by cutting them in half. Important: Dry them on paper towels so the batter sticks to them. Dip fish in batter.
- Using oil of your choice, deep fry until golden brown (either in a deep fryer or deep skillet).
- Batter won't spoil and can be reused if refrigerated. "The next day when you look at it in the refrigerator, it won't look very good, but just stir it, again adding more beer or flour as necessary for desired thickness."

*All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.*

According to the U.S. Flag Code, the American flag shouldn't be flown upside down — with the stars at the bottom — "except as a signal of dire distress in instances of extreme danger to life or property."

Yep...I'm doing it.

Hoping some snowflake will complain. Spence v. Washington, 418 U.S. 405 (1974), is the Supreme Court precedent dealing with non-verbal free speech and its protections under the First Amendment. If that ain't enough, there's the second amendment. Also have LED spotlights for 24 hour free speech proclamation.

Gone are the days of President Reagan and Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill collegial sparring that led to bipartisan resolution of differences with resulting legislation that was beneficial to America. We now have the "all or nothing" progressive mentality with lawyers in congress taught to win at all cost rather than using common sense. Open borders with taxpayer funding of illegals with the side benefit of rampant drug trafficking. A $30 Trillion debt while sending taxpayer money to countries that politicians couldn't find on a map. And there's the $2,340,659,340 the U.S. pays per day in interest on the debt owed to "friendly countries" like China.

Book Report

In his latest attempt to raise his national profile, MN Gov. Tim Walz took shots at FL Gov. Ron DeSantis saying DeSantis's state is "where freedom goes to die."

The remarks were made during an event to promote reading month, where Walz unveiled a Little Free Library outside of his office.

DeSantis said recent Florida legislation is designed to prohibit "pornography and sexual material in the classroom."

This may include books such as Toni Morrison's "The Bluest Eye," which contains graphic sexual content, including depictions of sexual assault and molestation, according to the nonpartisan BookLooks.org. The book is available in Walz's library.

"This Little Free Library is one way we're doing our part to ensure books remain accessible to teach, tell our story, and inspire the next generation of readers in Minnesota," he added.

Another book available in the MN governor's library, "Melissa" tells the story of a fourth-grade boy who transitions to being a girl.

Maybe we should help Gov Timmy by stuffing a few bibles in there?

I'm sure one of his highly paid staff would read to him.

Some of my Dad jokes are so funny even my kids laugh.

I get most of my exercise these days just shaking my head in disbelief.

It costs over $295,000 for parents to raise a child today...and that's just for the alcohol.

Started a wine diet. Lost three days the first week.

Am I a perfect person? No.

Am I trying to become a better person? Also no.

How many "mhhm's" does it take to get them to stop talking?

I think. Therefore I don't sleep.

Politicians fix problems they created by making them worse.

It's spring so don't forget to reverse your battery cables so the air conditioning in your car comes on instead of heat.

No one is above the law? Then why do they call them illegals?

The problem with close-minded people is that their mouths are always open.

Think outside. No box required.

Why do they call them "selfies" when they always want to share them?

USA Today named Rep. Leigh Finke, a biological male who identifies as a woman, Minnesota's "Woman of the Year".

"I have a future-oriented vision of what the work is, that is how I think of it. I think about what we're doing for our children's sake, for the next generation, for 30 years from now," said Finke, the first transgender lawmaker in the Minnesota House.

"Trans liberation is upward flowing, all liberation movements flow outwards. Everyone will benefit from it and it's worth committing yourself to," Finke said.

Finke is carrying a bill in the Minnesota House for children seeking "gender-affirming" drugs and surgeries. HF146, introduced by Rep. Leigh Finke of the Democratic Party, would make Minnesota a "trans refuge" state.

The first-term Democrat from St. Paul defended rioting in a speech last June and has called for abolishing the police.

"Representative [Leigh Finke] is a gift to Minnesota. Her tenacity, bravery, and leadership inspire me every day. This recognition as Woman of the Year is well-deserved," Lt. Gov. Peggy Flanagan said.

On International Women's Day, the White House presented a "Woman of Courage Award" to a biological male from Argentina.

Meanwhile, A transgender "woman" has accused a TSA agent of physically assaulting "her" during a security screening at John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York. The victim claimed that the unnamed agent punched "her" testicles during the airport screening.

Wouldn't that constitute a valid search for contraband?

Asking for a friend.

Department of Defense Inspector General quietly released the following recap of the Build Back Better campaign for the Taliban:

About 78 aircraft worth $923.3 million, 9,524 air-to-ground munitions valued at $6.54 million, over 40,000 vehicles, more than 300,000 weapons, and nearly all night vision, surveillance, encrypted communications, and biometric equipment were left behind for the Taliban by Biden admin. Also several pallets of $100 bills....in case they want to buy more?

Most of the information I find is NOT from Facebook for obvious reasons. I still find the news aggregate whatfinger.com best source as well as citizensfreepress.com.
