

Navy Vice Admiral Chatfield refused to put up new POTUS & SECDEF pictures at NATO HQ.

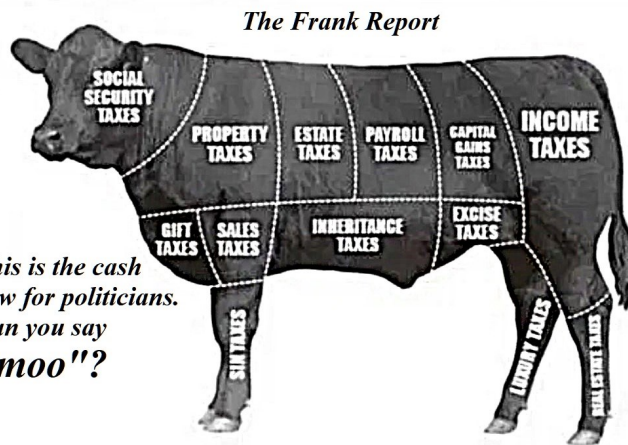

She also held an “all hands” where she said “we will wait them out 4 years”. She has been relieved of duty for obvious “open mouth insert foot”.

Another one...Terry Adirim, a senior CIA official and senior defense official who played a pivotal and illegal role in Biden’s military vaccine mandate, was fired.
Hope she knows how to code.

There are more examples of these idiots during the Trump administration to fire them. He’s more than willing to accommodate them. What they gonna do? Sue him?

This is the cash cow for politicians. Can you say "moo"?

Most states have a sales tax. You buy something and you must pay a tax. Notice that it is a sales tax...not a buy tax.

Those sneaky politicians did that on purpose. Think about it...they force a business to collect the tax that is included in the price of what you are buying. That makes the business liable for collecting the tax from you as part of the sale. They must keep complicated records and install expensive equipment and software to collect and then send the sales tax to the government. The government even requires the business to pay for a permit to collect the sales tax.

Some cities impose a sales tax in the city. That adds to the complexity for the business so they usually pay tax “specialists” who make sure all the rules and regulations of the tax code are followed. These specialists also form a lobby to further complicate the tax codes to embed their services into the process even deeper.

Why they call it a sales tax is very simple. If it was a buy tax, a smart business would just send the information to the government on every sale and tell them to collect the buy tax themselves thus avoiding the cost and time involved.

States also figured they would tax hunting and fishing which requires you to buy a license. Here is where their scheme failed. The businesses were not required (yet) by law to sell those licenses. The only alternative was to provide an incentive for the business to sell the licenses by giving them part of the license fee...which they do. If the sales tax was a buy tax, they’d have to share the proceeds with any business that would collect the buy tax.

Politicians would figure out a way to tax that too.

Ask your politician about this tax idiocy and you’ll get Deja moo...same old bullshit you’ve heard before..

Satanists Put Up a Plaque in the MN Capitol Thanking Gov. Walz For Supporting Them.

That should help his campaign if he ever figures what he’s running for....POTUS?

The new chair of the Democrats is Ken Martin who started a new DNC War Room with an initial attack claiming that RFK Jr. has murdered another child in Texas, apparently blaming Republicans for measles. Martin is from MN...off dah! I guess Walz and Klobuchar weren't enough pain that MN Dems could inflict on us nationally.

However, Georgia Democrat Lawmakers may be trying to outdo MN as they Staged a Walkout to Protest a Republican Bill that would prevent Taxpayer Funds be used for Transgender Surgeries for Inmates. Kamala must still be in charge....with AOC’s help?

President Trump has a strong position in the fight for fair trade: Consider the following:

U.S. share of world population: 4%

U.S. share of world GDP: 26%

U.S. share of world wealth: 29%

U.S. share of world debt: 35%

U.S. share of worldwide military spending: 37%

U.S. share of worldwide foreign aid: 40%

U.S. share of world stock markets: 50%

Since the end of World War II, America has been underwriting the rest of the world.

It's time they stood on their own.

America First is the new position, not globalism.

The world is about to get really fair, very fast.

Attorney Mike Davis has exposed what may be the largest terror financing scandal in US history: a DC federal judge allegedly greenlit $2 billion to Hamas, the terrorist organization waging war against Israel.

The accusations center on Judge Amir Ali, the first Muslim-Arab federal judge in DC, appointed by Joe Biden, accused of being an enabler of terrorism.

Speaking of terrorists...protestors hate Elon Musk so much that they destroy Tesla cars so an insurance company can buy the owner another Tesla from Elon?

More election idiocy like this...
