

That lid hasn't been lifted for over 50 years. The crap we're finding is certainly overwhelming. Think about the politicians who have been there so long that they have been swimming in it with no problem.

Conspiracy theories are becoming real:

a secret pedophile island where the global elite go to abuse underage kids, the government funding research of a virus that will kill millions, anti-hate non-profits (SPLC) funding the KKK, a guided tour of the Capitol gets labeled an insurrection and used to indict hundreds and impeach a president, 82 genders are discovered when science says there are only two...

Of course, that's only the latest from the swamp.

So what happened that turned the spotlight on this sewer and its crap?

Twitter died and Elon's X opened the blinds and turned on the lights.

Will the Democrats win the November mid-term elections and take over the government?

4.25.2026 #537

All the news I see fit to print. Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

George Soros is has no intention of abandoning his years-long obsession with buying control of the U.S. government for Democrats and politically handicapping his nemesis President Donald Trump. He just dumped $50 million into a Democrat PAC.

With Republican control of government hanging on by the fingertips, the mid-term elections in November will be the make or break of where this country is going to go...global world order or The Constitution and America's God given rights.

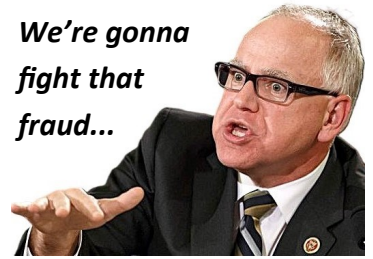

Organizations like Judicial Watch have been successful in cleaning up the voter rolls but the SAVE Act is seen as the final nail in the fraud and cheating coffin. There is a plethora (love that word) of state laws mandating clean voter rolls but they are ignored in Democrat controlled states. A federal law like the SAVE Act would bring federal scrutiny bypassing the state apathy to current laws. House leader Mike Johnson has been pushing Senate leader John Thune for over two months to get it passed. Some are calling for Thune's replacement...but with whom? Five senators can submit a written request to the GOP Conference Chair for a special meeting where 27 of 53 members could elect a new Senate leader. The fact that five senators have not done this is evidence that the route to take is still not clear.

Trump and a sphere of online conservative voices are demanding that the bill pass at any cost. Trump warned that if it does not, Republicans will fall flat in the upcoming midterm election cycle.

While an exhaustive marathon of debate using the filibuster would allow Republicans to pass the Safeguarding American Voter Eligibility (SAVE) America Act at a simple-majority threshold, Thune has time and again warned that the votes aren't there among Republicans to block Democratic amendments that could completely reshape the bill.

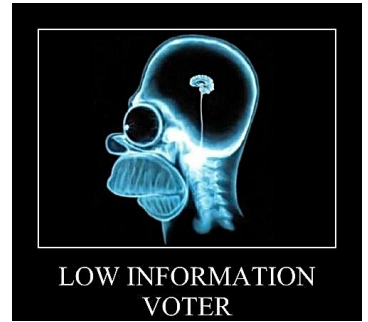

A likely strategy that Republicans will turn to is in the spirit of the talking filibuster with the marathon of debate and amendment votes that process would yield. A key difference is that Republicans would stack the deck with their own amendments, forcing Democrats to take vote after vote. That could get the Democrats voting to mutilate children and give illegal aliens amnesty.

Another route to pass the bill is the budget reconciliation, which Republicans used to pass Trump's "big, beautiful bill". Thune has the power but not the guts. He's also blocking the indictment of Russia Gate's Hillary Clinton and John Brennan. GIT "ER DONE!!!

We're gonna fight that fraud...

Every Democrat on the Minnesota Rules Committee voted to block investigations of fraud under Tim Walz...

The Minnesota Star Tribune newspaper will report and praise Timmy's vigilance while condemning the Republicans for not supporting him.

That "fight" Timmy referred to is the federal investigations that just might find Timmy indicted and sentenced. Let's hope!

Meanwhile, Omar says that report of her $30 million was an accounting error and that she's only worth $18k. Bless her heart!

When the Democrats can get away with this kind of crap, it tends to draw even worse Democrats to run for office.

The U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO) estimates that the federal government loses up to $521 billion annually to fraud.

California Governor Gavin Newsom covertly spent $1 billion importing 400,000 migrants from poor countries to serve the state's Democratic political machine and elite-dominated economy.

Last week, up to two million FBI records were found in a secret room at the FBI. Tom Fitton of Judicial Watch uncovered the information. The records date to the Comey era, most are anti-Trump records in burn bags.

Anheuser-Busch is increasing its U.S. investment to $600 million over two years, expanding brewery capacity, worker training and veteran hiring as the beer giant leans further into domestic manufacturing.

Harmeet Dhillon, the U.S. Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights, requested voter roll data from every state and the District of Columbia. About a third have cooperated voluntarily or reached settlements. The rest? She's suing 29 states and D.C. for refusing to hand over records her office is legally entitled to under the Civil Rights Act of 1960. "States are not in compliance," she said, "even those who want to."

Regarding the records she's already been able to run, 60 million of them, the findings are stunning. Her office found at least 350,000 dead people currently listed on voter rolls across those jurisdictions as active voters. That's an alarming number, especially when you consider the fact that the 2020 election was decided on fewer than 50,000 votes across the battleground states. This is why Democrats in Congress oppose the SAVE America Act, even though an overwhelming majority of Americans support it.

Attorney General Ken Paxton sued ActBlue, Democrat political fundraising platform, for misleading consumers about its unlawful donation processes that allow fraudulent and foreign donations to undermine the integrity of our nation's elections. "They have relied on ActBlue to funnel foreign donations and dark money into their political campaigns to subvert our laws and compromise the integrity of our elections.
