

tomato basil parmesan soup – in the crockpot.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 (14 oz) cans diced tomatoes, with juice
- 1 cup finely diced celery
- 1 cup finely diced carrots
- 1 cup finely diced onions
- 1 tsp oregano
- 1 T basil
- 4 cups chicken broth
- ½ bay leaf
- ½ cup flour
- 1 cup Parmesan cheese
- ½ cup butter
- 2 cups half and half
- 1 tsp salt
- ¼ tsp black pepper

DIRECTIONS

1. Add tomatoes, celery, carrots, chicken broth, onions, oregano, basil, and bay leaf to slow cooker.
2. Cover and cook on LOW for 5-7 hours.
3. Melt butter over low heat in a skillet and add flour. Stir constantly with a whisk for 5-7 minutes. Slowly stir in 1 cup hot soup. Add all back into the slow cooker. Stir and add the Parmesan cheese, warmed half and half, salt and pepper.
4. Cover and cook on LOW for another 30 minutes or so until ready to serve.

Made this to go with a BLT that included slices of Havarti cheese melted over the bacon. Glass of wine and you're all set:

Geverstermiener, gustomaminer, gistamoanaminer, oh hell: white wine!
(found the bottle: Gewurztraminer)

*All the news I see fit to print.
 Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.*

It would appear that Pfizer is putting pressure on the FDA to place holds on their competitors' vaccines. Pfizer was the company that President Trump dragged kicking and screaming into the vaccine development effort. They waited two days after the 2020 election to announce they had one.

Next comes the hold on everyone but Pfizer because of adverse effects of the vaccines. Only six reported but the hold is suspicious as over seven million vaccines had been pumped into arms. That's less than one in a million adverse effects... which leads to the suspicion that there are more than those reported..."reported" is the key word as the Lame Stream Liars are continuing to shame people because they haven't had the shot.

While the pharma companies fight over which vaccine should be used, Fauci says it doesn't matter since you need to wear masks and maintain social distance even if you get one of the vaccines. Then why in hell do you need a vaccine...or a mask?

Meanwhile, during the pandemic, the health care industry should have thrived— sick people after all demand health care services. What happened was the opposite, however. The health care industry faced a significant loss in employment; nine percent between March and April 2020. By wiping away the demand for some health care services, COVID-19 restrictions cost Minnesotans job and providers revenue. Not only that but the decline in screenings is expected to increase mortality for health issues like cancer.

Personal note: I haven't seen my doctor for two years and the VA has denied service for almost same length of time because of Timmy's mask mandate even though the VA's own research has found the mask ineffective.

Book Report

Took a break from my Cussler marathon and watched this fascinating DVD Dr. Marshall sent. Three distinct plots with six characters played by two actors. Then add great computer graphics and free on Amazon Prime.

Due out next Tuesday. Make sure you check out his books. The Martian is great and made it through Hollyweird without any woke bullshit.

This guy was part of the Bush/Gore election fraud investigation involving hanging chads on the punch card ballots. Bush won because the Supreme Court ruled on the matter. Voter fraud has come a long way since then involving algorithms and voting machines, pre-printed mail in ballots from China and absentee ballots miraculously mailed without folding the ballot to fit in the envelope but found underneath counters in suitcases. Then there were the suspicious vote totals where Biden got more votes than registered voters. Many of the elements of the election were scrutinized and several lawsuits filed but never heard. Democrats report that the allegations were rejected when in actuality they were just ignored. Of course, the Republicans did their song and dance routine of gnashing of teeth while sending out emails and snail mail notices to their constituents that they needed more money so this would never happen again.

Finally the Arizona GOP majority senate did something about it and with an end run around the Democrats, got an honest audit scheduled albeit for just Maricopa county. The Democrats were quick to respond with an army of lawyers showing up filing objections all over the place...they succeeded in getting the county supervisors to side with them but were outgunned by the Senate which has more legal clout. One of the county supervisors fighting the audit is married to a judge...lo and behold his wife is now the presiding judge in the audit. That didn't work so that judge picked the third judge...another Democrat appointed judge. While the Democrats played hide the bias with the judge shuffling, the audit continued with enough results to thwart any claim that it was not accurate.

Of course, the Democrats are very nervous since Arizona's audit result could be the linchpin to force similar audits in several other states where the number of votes tallied for Biden did not meet the smell test.

Democrats are trying to shut down and delay the audit now because they know the Arizona Senate, both Republicans and Democrats, have rented Veterans Memorial Coliseum until May 14th.

So here we are...politicians, judges, and an army of lawyers nitpicking the system to assure the general public that they are all honest and elections are as honest as they claim to be. I'll believe it when someone winds up in jail for a long time.

Hollyweird people make believe they are other people. They call it acting. Outside of their bubble, it would be called a mental disorder. You're welcome.

An alternative for those nuts looking for suicide by cop: take out an insurance policy with BLM and ANTIFA as beneficiaries. This will work best in any Democrat controlled city. Your life (or lack thereof) will finally have some value. It will also save some trees as the police will not have to fill out the paperwork.

I will make sure there's food, fresh water and clean litter box for my guys. The FBI has been very busy rounding up Trump supporters lately.
