

The House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform concludes that Governor Tim Walz and AG Keith Ellison were repeatedly warned about widespread fraud in MN's taxpayer-funded programs for years, yet failed to take meaningful action while billions of dollars were siphoned from government programs. They were more concerned with the Somalia votes than taxpayers. This is the record Democrats will be running on in November.

The good news...The Star Tribune newspaper is in big trouble and even flirted with sale to Alpha News, a very conservative news source on the internet.

The newspaper has been laying off staff and even blatantly suggested becoming an NGO so MN taxpayers could support them instead of the subscribers they keep losing. Good thing Timmy got caught with his hand in the cookie jar otherwise the publisher of the Star might have pulled that off; he once was on Timmy's staff. A MN billionaire bought the paper and hired him.

The Republican party of MN has an easy job this election season. Let's hope the Republican candidates divorce them and actually run for the office they seek rather than cowering in the corner as the party has done because those DFLers are so mean and they have all that campaign cash.

The Frank Report

THIS is a valid vote from a CA mail-in ballot.

All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

California takes 37 DAYS to count 10 million ballots.

Brazil: 2 hours (124M ballots)
France: 4 hours (34M ballots)
India: 24 hours (640M ballots)
Germany: 8 hours (51M ballots)
Argentina: 6 hours (25M ballots)

It takes California that long because they need to figure out how many votes they need to defeat any Republican silly enough to challenge them. Couple of examples:

When voters in the city of Huntington Beach passed a charter amendment to enable the city to require voter ID in local elections, the state sued to block it and then passed a state law prohibiting voter ID.

Sheriff's investigators uncovered people from PAKISTAN voting in California elections. People living OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY were registered and casting ballots. California's online voter registration system operates on an "honor system" where literally anyone in the world can register to vote by simply clicking a box saying they're not lying. No verification, no citizenship checks. Just click and you're registered. Once you're in the system, you get a ballot for EVERY election! Next page digs deeper into why they need 37 days or more to "comply" with their "laws".

Is President Trump setting a USPS trap for California's mail-in fraud machine? States handle elections but feds own the Postal Service — genius 4D chess to nail the ballot stuffers. Federal jurisdiction on USPS means they can audit the mail ballots without state interference. California's been cheating for years — time to expose it and prosecute. No more honor system. State election officials could soon face a stark choice: Hand over voter lists to the Trump administration or risk losing Postal Service delivery for mail-in ballots.

Meanwhile, the Lame Stream Media is trying to explain how a Democrat with Nazi symbols tattooed on his chest is a great competitor to RINO Susan Collins in Maine. The mid term elections in November is gearing up to become the greatest political circus we've ever seen. But with a new ringmaster!

Lame Stream Media

The new CBS News editor-in-chief Bari Weiss, a former New York Times writer who walked away from that paper's radical leftward lurch, fired the far-left executive producer and multiple anti-Trump correspondents at the once-venerable newsmagazine. The Times interviewed the disgraced, Jobless Leftist 'News' Veteran Scott Pelley Breaks Down in Tears, Compares '60 Minutes' Shake-Up to a 'Massacre' and Claims His TV 'Family' Was 'Murdered'. The interview did not mention that during an all hands staff meeting, Pelley told his new boss she was incompetent and he was more valuable to the program than she was. Guess what...she fired him. Pelley was a "newsreader", mouthing a script others had prepared...and yet he calls himself a "journalist".

Notice how Leslie Stahl is keeping a low profile right now? Remember how she argued with Trump?

Why do Democrats cheat at elections and steal your taxes? Because Republicans let them.

California won't finish counting ballots until they know how many they need?

Larry O'Connor of Townhall.com explains CA elections:

The real scandal coming out of California right now is 100% legal. Anyone with a functional brain can see what's happening in CA and know that the election is being stolen...they are stealing it without breaking the law. As a former CA resident, O'Connor said "Anybody who is a registered voter gets a ballot mailed to them, and you register to vote because you walk into a DMV, and you automatically get registered no matter what. California leads the nation in giving driver's licenses and registrations to illegal immigrants, people who are in the country illegally, and they're getting driver's ed. They're getting commercial driver's license in California and when you go through the process, they register you to vote. And there is no check for citizenship. There's no check for ID, there's no check for anything. And they'll register you to vote. And you're on the voter rolls."

O'Connor stated he hasn't lived in Los Angeles County since 2012, and he's STILL being notified by email that his ballot has been mailed to him. "I don't know who got it. Whatever address I used to live in has the Lawrence O'Connor ballot, and I'd love to know if I voted. I probably have without anyone knowing it."

And then comes the issue of ballot harvesting... "In CA, individuals can collect ballots from anyone. They can knock on the doors and say, 'Hey, give me your ballot. I'll take care of it for you' legally. And those people who knock on your door and collect your ballot, they call it 'ballot harvesting'. They can work for political entities. They can work for political action committees. They can pick and choose what ballots they want to collect. They bring them in or they don't. Every mail in ballot has no ID required for every single mail in or drop box ballot. All you've got to do is sign the ballot. But of course, it would be discriminatory to allow somebody who is illiterate and can't write their name to not vote. So when you sign your ballot, you can just make a mark. You can make a smiley face if you want, but it's witnessed. Don't worry. There's a little box for a witness to sign. But there's no name associated with a witness. It's just a signature. And when those ballots are collected, the witness signature isn't checked. They just check that there is a signature for a witness. There's nothing keeping people from making a little mark on the signature for the voter. And then that same person squiggling the witness box, putting it in an envelope and then having those votes come in. They allow ballots that come in as late as a week after Election Day be counted. The ballot had to be mailed or put into a Dropbox or delivered by Election day. If it's not postmarked, they'll overlook that. If there's no postmark at all on the envelope, they'll just look at whatever date you put on it and they'll trust you, and then they'll count the ballots."

They're following the laws that they have written so that they can get away with this garbage.
