

Recipe Corner

Sautéed Red Cabbage

Lettuce lasts about a few days...cabbage is gooder.

Start with 2tbs oil and sauté sliced sweet onion for about two minutes. Add shredded cabbage and sauté until it wilts (about 3-5 minutes).

Add 1/3 cup apple cider vinegar and turn the cabbage. Sprinkle 2tbs sugar and turn cabbage. Season with tsp mustard seed, salt and pepper and reduce heat. Let it cook for about ten minutes on low heat. Well worth the effort.

My DiL Brenda is adding new plantings to my entryway...the benefit of my son marrying a farm girl...she loves to play in the dirt. My neighbors will be hard pressed to keep up. She also monitors my activities in the garden. I figure if the plant pulls out of the ground easily, it's a keeper. If you have to struggle with it, it's a weed. Brenda believes the tomato plants may be safe from me. Pictures of the finished project in next week's newsletter.

I'm sure President Trump is also wondering where the Republican politicians are hiding. The more the Democrats throw at him, the higher his favorable poll ratings. Group of RINO's increasing in numbers all shouting "pick me"... but Trump's crowds growing and even some of the Lame Stream Media are backing off. Let's take a look at who they've recruited for this latest effort now that Alvin Bragg (NY DA) has been hiding from the backlash:

"Jack Smith" was appointed by Attorney-General Merrick Garland to lead the criminal indictment. His wife is linked to George Soros and Hillary Clinton, and made the film about the Obama family. Jack was Chief Prosecutor at the Kosovo Specialist Chambers in the Netherlands so has seldom even been in the United States in recent years.

Karen Gilbert, a Justice Department prosecutor who is leading the government's case against former President Donald Trump related to his handling of allegedly classified documents, has a history of corruption and was once reprimanded by a federal judge for secretly recording a defense lawyer and his investigator and she had to retire from her position.

Smith's wife, Katy Chevigny, was a film director for that documentary "Becoming," focused on creating sainthood for Michelle and Barack Obama and included Valerie Jarrett, and Oprah Winfrey as she liberally (sorry) sprinkled holy water.

Other close family members are connected to Soros's Open Society Foundation, the Board of the Human Rights Defense Center, which received donations from the New World Foundation, closely connected to Hillary Clinton.

Why are they being so blatant? Maybe because they are getting desperate to protect Joe Briben's (sic) family?

Book Report

Joe Pickett (season one) is available on Amazon Prime. Michael Dorman stars as Joe Pickett but I had doubts on first episode but he fit into the role by the third. Rest of the cast fits except for Mustafa Speaks as Nate Romanowski (but may blend in just like Dorman). C.J. Box is also executive producer so the TV plot followed his debut book.

← Maybe all this is to draw attention away from the latest damning evidence about their pResident Biden. Grassley, R-Iowa, revealed from the Senate floor a redacted reference in the FBI-generated FD-1023 form alleging a criminal bribery scheme between then-Vice President Joe Biden and a foreign national that involved influence over U.S. policy decisions. Democrats suggested this as a theory and not fact until the Burisma executive...who paid Joe Biden and Hunter Biden... kept 17 audio recordings of his conversations with them as an "insurance policy," citing the FBI FD-1023 form that the FBI used to briefed congressional lawmakers. Ooops?

The third Tucker Carlson episode on Twitter explains this as the primary reason Trump is now a target for everything the Deep State can throw at him. They forget what Trump accomplished in four years in spite of the vitriol:

During his first term in the White House, in the face of continual, untruthful, and hypocritical attacks from the left and his own party, Donald Trump achieved gasoline prices under $2 a gallon, record low unemployment, inflation under 2%, rising real wages for working-class Americans, a dramatic reduction in illegal immigration, the end of NAFTA, better trade agreements with Mexico and Canada, higher tariffs on products from Communist China, lower taxes on American corporations and small businesses, reduced regulation of American manufacturing and energy production, withdrawal from the Paris climate agreement, American energy independence, a significant increase in American military spending, a significant increase in military spending by the other NATO allies, the creation of the United States Space Force, no new wars, reduced missile testing by North Korea, cancellation of the Obama nuclear weapons agreement with Iran, recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, the brokering of historic trade agreements between Israel and its Arab neighbors, restoration of quality medical care for veterans at the VA, elimination of the Obamacare mandate to buy health insurance, the right of terminally ill patients to try experimental treatment, the appointment of more than 230 federal judges who believe in following the Constitution, the appointment of three Supreme Court justices who believe in following the Constitution, and a welcoming environment in the Republican Party for good and decent Americans of all races and classes. The Supreme Court overturned Roe v Wade with a 6-3 vote.

It is important to note that high-ranking federal officials who provide classified information to third parties are almost never the subject of criminal investigations and are almost never charged with crimes. One key exception is when the person providing the classified information to a third party is named Donald Trump.

Almost every day, high-ranking federal officials leak classified information to journalists for political purposes. That classified information is then included in well-regarded news stories, which the journalists use to advance their careers. Currently, journalists seem to be upset about classified information that was not leaked to them, which they could not use to advance their careers.

Remember all those Pulitzer prizes awarded to "journalists" at New York Slimes for "reporting" the Russian collusion with Trump?

Me neither...
