

Recipe Corner
Banana Pound Cake
 (great with ice cream)

- package yellow cake mix
- 4 eggs* (room temperature)
- 1/3 cup oil
- 1/2 cup water
- about 4 medium mashed bananas
- package instant vanilla pudding
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine all ingredients in large mixer bowl. Mix until blended, then beat at medium speed for 4 minutes. Turn batter into greased and *lightly floured 10 inch Bundt pan. Bake in 350 degree oven for an hour.

tips: use some of the cake mix to flour and you'll get a nice finish on the top; also crack the eggs on a flat surface (not edge of bowl) and the shell will stay stuck to the membrane so no shell fragments.*

THE FRANK REPORT

6.2.2018

All the news I see fit to print.

Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

One claims to be a Native American; the other claims to be an African American. Both claim that more gun control laws are needed....

In other news, here's a history lesson comparing old technology with the latest:

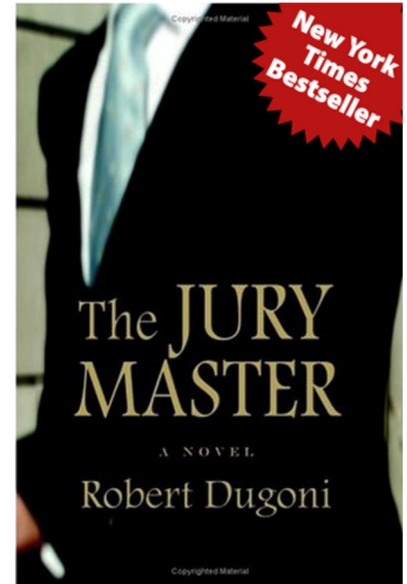

Plumbing has been around for well over a century. Those familiar with plumbing will recognize the male fitting on the left versus the female fitting on the right. The NOW gang hasn't demonstrated against this terminology...yet. Contrast that with the basics of computer hardware technology and the various ways to "hookup".

← Might be just a coincidence, but the LGBT movement started around the same time that computers entered the picture. Maybe if my Windows computer self-identified as an Apple computer, it might be able to run FaceTime as well as Skype? Meanwhile, I've started a second storage box for the various cables I've collected since 1975 (the year I bought my first computer). There's a stack of floppy disks in there too. Just saying.

Bon Mots

When my kids introduce me to anyone new, they always say "be nice".

At least they haven't added "syndrome" to my name.

Book Report

Another new (to me) author to follow. His 2006 second book starts the David Sloan series with another series featuring Tracy Crosswhite character in following years. Did some research and found his debut book which turned out to be a true story (Cyanide Canary). Given the great start with The Jury Master, no wonder this guy has produced over a dozen best sellers.

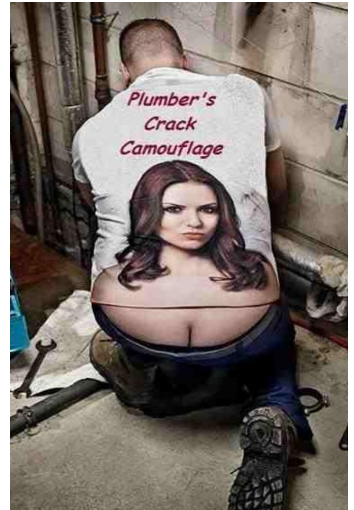

Turned the TV on again to watch an old dvd movie...still good. Kids may not know Roselee had masters points playing Bridge and once had the chance to play bridge with Omar Sharif. Still have the Bridge computer game he sold at his tournaments. I usually ignored bidding rules but Roselee always saved us.

Channing Dungey, ABC Entertainment Group's executive president fires Rosanne Barr for racist tweets. ABC pays "Reverend" Al Sharpton to defend Valerie Jarret.

America seems to be losing its sense of humor. For those thinking misogyny from the first page, let me remind you that all the plumbers I have met have a great sense of humor...probably from the satisfaction they get doing actual work rather than worrying about what others may say or do. Maybe if the entertainment media spent more time creating positive work, there would be less time to criticize. Instead, they continue to bastardize their own franchise work that started great (Star Wars (1977)) and devolved into Social Justice Warfare.

"Reverend" Al Sharpton has a history of involvement with racism...search any of the four below for details (not to mention how the IRS ignores the taxes he owes).

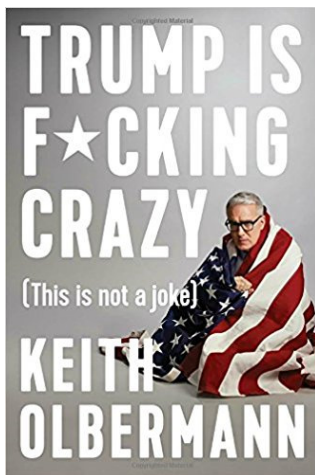

Finished building the coffee table for the living room and moved the other to TV room...better match for the furniture.

ABC is owned by Disney...with Walt Disney having a documented history of racism... see the Uncle Remus character from Disney's movie Song Of The South (if you can find it) .

- Tell them I can't hear them
- Move closer so I can hear
- Repeatedly shout WHAT?!
- Laugh and hope it wasn't a question

Meanwhile, over at ESPN, another Disney property, they have re-hired Keith Olbermann on the heels of his unbiased dissertation on politics. In other news, a white guy has been ostracized for pronouncing the N word from a black rapper's song. Not having read nor heard the lyrics, I'm not even sure how you spell the N word. I guess electing a half-black president means we're only half way to racial equality? Is Sharpton running?

Laurel or Yanny? I finally figured out it was politicians having the same hearing problem I have. It was actually Laurel and Hardy.
