Chicken Wild Rice

casserole ingredients:

- Three green onions chopped
- Garlic (2 tbs for me)
- Cup of wild rice
- Can mushrooms
- Can mushroom soup
- Chopped celery (cup)
- Two cups mixed frozen veg
- Large chicken breast

Directions:

Cook the wild rice in three cups of chicken broth. Fry the onion and garlic in butter. Then add chopped up (inch cubes) chicken breast. Salt, pepper and spices of your choice (I use five spice Chinese). Once all the ingredients are done, use large bowl to mix. You can now microwave or bake (325) until bubbly to complete. All ingredients are already cooked so cut back on time. I got three large servings. Sprinkle cashews/Chow Mein noodles/ or anything you can think of; a recipe you can play with. Only took me a glass of wine to create this one.

*All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.*

Klobuchar helped put a teenager behind bars based on questionable evidence and testimony. She was the Hennepin County attorney. The MN NAACP is calling for this case to be opened because the charges were too flimsy. Her only claim to fame was her dad who was a columnist for the Star Trib (so-called) newspaper. She's married to John Bessler. Wonder why she didn't take his name as most brides did when she got married? Voters often go for familiar names.

I bet she hasn't noticed the German Bessler name means tinkerer, someone who fixes things. It even has a neat coat of arms. She opted for the Klobuchar name to cash in on her dad's fame. She certainly fits the meaning of the name.

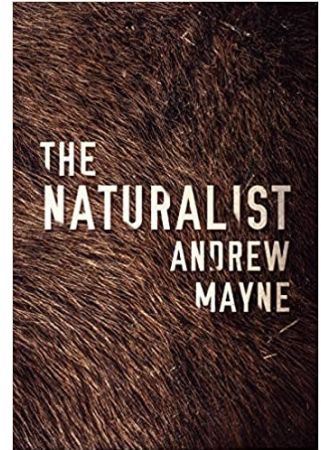

The Serbo-Croatian word klobučar means "hat-maker". Then there is the mad hatter from Alice in Wonderland fame that came from the mercury hatters used that drove them mad. Her temper is something of legend on Capitol Hill. Last year, she was named one of the "Worst Bosses in Congress" by Politico after a survey showed that from 2001-2016, she had far-and-away the highest annual staff turnover rates in the Senate. There was the infamous comb/salad episode you could search. This is certainly not the Minnesota Nice reputation her constituents enjoy. Yet the MN GOP has never once mentioned it.

True character shows in how you treat those with less power than you, especially behind closed doors.

Book Report

Mayne is considered one of the most prolific magic creators of the last decade after having written and produced over fifty DVDs, books and manuscripts on magic. He started writing fiction books in 2011 and published several eBooks where I discovered him via the free Amazon Prime offer. Multiple heroes in his books but all are like the hat while the rabbit is the plot and dialogue he provides that are the real magic in his work. Have two more on my "to read" shelf and highly recommend all of his dozens of books.

When the Lame Stream Media start calling it FauciGate, you know there's lots more coming about this idiot. Even CNN is piling on which means they should put Tony on suicide watch...maybe not?

Spring is in the air.

Most of our readers will recognize this method of gathering all the crap from the winter and spreading it on the fields to encourage crop growth. Same thing is happening in Washington as politicians dig out their most outrageous sound bites for the Lame Stream Media to spread prior to the next election cycle. The so-called journalists have been taught their trade by “communication” professors who number 108 Democrats to zero Republicans in a survey done by Brooklyn College. Over 60 million households get their “news” from pay TV...however, there are over 60 million households who have cut the cord. And that number is unsurprisingly growing. Newspapers have been dying in the last decade. Here’s an example why: the investigation of grand jury leaks to the Star Tribune’s Andy Mannix in the federal civil rights case brought against Chauvin and his former colleagues. The Star Tribune has not reported on the motion filed by the United States and the response requesting for more time to answer the court as to who leaked. Andy knows and is not protected by law from admitting he knows who leaked it. The leak is one of the many reasons there might be a mistrial announced. Of course, the Star Trib may report when Andy winds up in jail. Needless to say, there will be huge deflection of the truth as Fauci and the election fraud issues come under scrutiny in the coming weeks. Facebook has an embarrassing story out there but then you may not have heard about it...thus the reason I have provided a list of the 20 top news sites in the attached word file...you can click on the links and add them to your favorite links.

Pride month? How about straight pride...has worked for thousands of years...it’s natural and you can make babies.

from The Frank Report:
3.7.2020

Politicians and lame stream media are hyping the new beer plaque...coronavirus. Waiting for the report on Lime disease. Centers for Disease Control (CDC) , in a February 22,2020 report, estimates that so far this season there have been at least 32 million flu illnesses, 310,000 hospitalizations and 18,000 deaths from flu.

“The percentage of death attributed to pneumonia and influenza is 6.9 percent, below the epidemic threshold of 7.3 percent,” the CDC reported.

The first single death from that beer virus caused all media to spend hours speculating just how incompetent bad orange man is for not preventing it. Because of the media hype, people are avoiding Corona beer...sales are down.

Those same people vote!

Statistics prove you are more likely to die from an association with Hillary Clinton than with the beer virus.

Until next week...
