Pecan Encrusted Fish

Ingredients:

- 1/2 cup dry breadcrumbs
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped pecans
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 cup low-fat buttermilk
- 1/2 teaspoon hot sauce
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 4 (6 ounce) fish fillets

Directions:

Combine breadcrumbs, pecans, salt, garlic, and pepper in a shallow dish. Combine buttermilk and hot sauce (such as Tabasco) in a medium bowl. Place flour in a third dish. Dredge fillets in flour, dip into buttermilk mixture, then into breadcrumb mixture. Heat 1 1/2 tsp oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cook fillets for three minutes on each side or until fish flakes easily. Serve fish with lemon and beer with lime.

Sidebar: if you can find this brandy, I highly recommend it. About $24: well worth it.

All the news I see fit to print.

Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

When you realize this is only ONE county in AZ, and Trump “lost” this entire state’s 11 electoral votes by about 10K votes, you start to realize how important it is to create a forensic audit in EVERY state. It also gives you some idea of how the Democrats have maintained control in states like MN and IL. How else could some of these idiot congress critters manage to reach Washington, DC? MN’s voting system has been labeled the weakest in the nation...which explains Gov Timmy, Omar (or whatever her name is) and Klobuchar. Not to mention the odd loss by State Senator Matt Little to a GOP opponent who has disappeared since the election. As the Lame Stream Media, and some “conservative” cable news pundits, ignore the election fraud, one thing remains true: The U.S. Constitution grants plenary power to the State Legislature to oversee elections and choose or withdraw their state’s electors. Contact your local GOP (if you have one that is vertical and taking nourishment—unlike the MN bunch), and insist that they begin the audit process. Do NOT rely on local press to help.

Obfuscation will be the dominant Democrat message.

Book Report

The 1994 book by Winston Groom resulted in a 1998 Forrest Gump film that defined just where we were as a society. Two other movies starring Tom Hanks released that year include Saving Private Ryan and You've Got Mail. Today Forrest would still be wearing gov't mandated leg braces...and a mask...in a federal home. Private Ryan would be SOL as Democrats, once again, quit in the middle of a war. That cute kid using email to fix his dad up would have been banned from social media. That hilarious black hero in the 1998 movie Blade, would have won all of the academy awards in the name of diversity, or equity, or even LGBTXYZ.

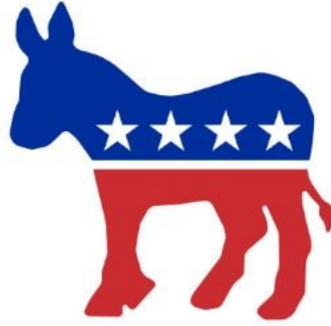

Hollyweird has a problem with our heroes?

Republicans

The “so-called” two party system has evolved into a group grope in Washington DC to create a bipartisan cabal whose only purpose is to share the wealth they are confiscating from the citizens. The 98% approval rating that President Trump got did not stop half a dozen Republicans to show up in Iowa as potential presidential candidates for the 2024 election. It’s another way to fleece money from their “constituents” when they know damn well they won’t have a chance, either because of The Donald or the Democrat’s election fraud. The RNC chair...Mitt Romney’s niece...fleeced about $300 million to fight the election fraud but can’t seem to find where she put the money. MN politicians just voted a pay raise for themselves of $1,795.00,,,in the spirit of bipartisanship?

Minnesota GOP Chairwoman Jennifer Carnahan attacked conservative organization Action 4 Liberty for “dividing” the party. Carnahan suggested that people associated with this group and groups like it should be purged from the Republican Party. The Minnesota GOP tries to “make sure to educate people — so they understand what these groups are — and discourage contributing to them, supporting them, because they do significant harm to our party,” Carnahan explained. Harm...as in getting donations she wants? Rep. Jeremy Munson recently criticized the Minnesota GOP for attacking conservative organizations. They promptly cut off his support. Way to go Jennifer...an incumbent Republican shut down just before the election. Nose meet knife! Maybe if you spent some of the money you’re begging for to fix your sad website...and support the candidates. Maybe even ask Mitt’s niece for some of that $300 million to audit the MN election that gave us Timmy, Omar and woman beater avowed Antifa fan Attorney General Ellison.

Gov. Tim Walz is up for re-election, and all 201 state House and Senate seats are also on the ballot. DFLers hold the other three statewide elected offices; attorney general, secretary of state and state auditor. Barbara Sutter, one of the MN state’s GOP “leaders” has been trying to replace Jennifer as chair. Maybe it’s time for the MN GOP to get rid of the internal fighting...mostly based on ego...and start focusing on how the Democrats have been able to maintain a 15 year dominance in the state.

Ms. Sutter has bragged about her fundraising ability...during the period of 2011-2016, the GOP averaged $14.02 per person while the DFL averaged $4.16...(population was about 5,450,000 if you want to crunch the numbers). With almost four times the money, how did the GOP continue to lose? Was it election fraud or mismanagement of the money the GOP gathered? Is the cat fight going on between Sutter and Carnahan the GOP problem in MN? Maybe it’s time for some mansplaining?

Mandatory vaccine for military?

With the rising numbers of deaths and adverse reaction to all the vaccines, why is the military pushing mandatory vaccination? If the vaccines prove dangerous, and the side effects grow exponentially, what keeps our military strong enough to protect the country.

Not a conspiracy theory...just a common sense question. Why take the chance? Let military members chose to be vaccinated...or not...based on personal research. You’d think the military would have learned their “mandatory” lesson with their anthrax vaccination fiasco...look it up. It didn’t turn out so well for either the military nor the soldiers who received the anthrax vaccinations. If you don’t pay attention to the mistakes of the past, you’re bound to repeat them.

Until next week...
