Shepard Pie

Ingredients:

- 1 pound cubed beef, cooked
- mixed vegetables
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/4 cup light cream
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 2 cups mashed potatoes
- 1 egg
- 2 teaspoons melted butter
- Paprika.

Heat oven to 400 degrees. In a 2 quart casserole dish add the cooked meat and the vegetables. Crumble the bay leaf over. In a small bowl mix the cream, salt, pepper and parsley and mix into the mashed potatoes. Beat the egg and fold into the potato mixture, spread over the meat and vegetables. Brush the top with the melted butter, sprinkle lightly with paprika. Bake 20 minutes or until top is browned. Note: I use 4 cup Pyrex dishes and freeze before cooking.

Freezing leftovers can be fun. You forget what's in your freezer and are pleasantly surprised at what you find. Sort of like forgetting that you ordered stuff from Amazon and having it show up at your door. Who said getting old was bad?

*All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.*

Some interesting thoughts about those vaccines...

None of them have received FDA approval so they are listed as experimental. There have been no initial research trials (other than those performed at the Wuhan lab to create it?) There has been no testing on animals (except humans?) Publicly traded companies are being paid billions of our tax dollars...so far it's

$9 billion for just development and another $2.5 billion for equipment. (Check out how their stock is doing!) Bill Gates is a big proponent for depopulation. (Maybe why he's very enthusiastic about the vaccines that he has a financial interest in? Two birds with one shot!) MN just recruited the UofM football coach to send a spam email encouraging everyone to get the shot. I replied asking him if he would be liable for any adverse reactions... "crickets". All of the vaccine manufacturers...and even the world famous Dr. Fauci...are protected from any liability if the vaccine kills or maims you. The Hollyweird crowd is being recruited to scream at us about the need for the vaccines while credible scientists are being banned from the internet and even fired for doubting the claims of efficacy for the vaccines. Another interesting fact about the Covid pandemic is the reporting of influenza...38 million in 2019 and only 1800 in 2020. Maybe the money ($30K each) federal gov't paid to hospitals for Covid deaths had something to do with that? The Covid pandemic, and now the "deviant" strain, has been under gov't control from day one. Was it a smokescreen to cover the election fraud? Next page has some numbers for you to crunch while waiting for the key state audits the fed gov't is trying to prevent. Hang on for the ride!

Book Report

He was chief resident in psychiatry at Mass Gen Hospital which probably helped him figure out what in hell was going on in the minds of our congress critters. He was the speechwriter for Walter Mondale; probably did much to create one of the strongest voices for conservatives. His columns and frequent TV appearances are missed.

Michael Connelly has won every major award that is granted to mystery writers for his Hieronymous Bosch and Lincoln Lawyer characters. Final season now on Amazon Prime. (Yes, I binged watched.)

Amy Klobuchar (D-MN) is set to hold a Senate Rules Committee hearing in Georgia next month with a focus on the federal takeover of elections. Klobuchar will hold the hearing on July 19, marking the first time a field hearing has been held in 20 years, according to The Hill.

Klobuchar's office states that the witnesses, who have not been announced, will discuss "recently enacted legislation to restrict voting in the state and the need for basic federal standards to protect the freedom to vote."

Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer tried to pass a bill to federalize congressional elections across the country, requiring voting changes such as automatic voter registration, protecting illegal immigrants from prosecution if they voted, registering minors to vote, requiring early voting, and establishing nationwide vote-by-mail without voter ID.

Klobuchar, who chairs the Senate Rules Committee, solicited donors to her reelection committee with an "elite club" invited to policy discussions with guests such as Sen. Warnock (D-GA). (and maybe the "Abrams Tank"?)

Here are the "official" results:

Biden – 306 electoral votes
 Trump – 232 electoral votes

WI – 10 electoral votes
 Biden: 1,630,503
 Trump: 1,610,036
20,467

AZ – 11 electoral votes
 Biden: 1,672,143
 Trump: 1,661,686
10,457

GA – 16 electoral votes
 Biden: 2,474,601
 Trump: 2,461,965
12,636

PA – 20 electoral votes
 Biden: 3,458,229
 Trump: 3,377,674
80,555

MI – 16 electoral votes
 Biden: 2,804,040
 Trump: 2,649,852
154,188

VA – 13 electoral votes
 Biden: 2,413,164
 Trump: 1,962,633
450,531

270 electoral votes to win
Trump needs 38
86 to be audited

Election audits to ensure election integrity do not disenfranchise voters and, in fact, protect their right to vote and their confidence in the fairness and integrity of election outcomes no matter who wins. Preventing, deterring, and prosecuting fraud is essential to protecting the integrity of our voting process.

MN voters:

Have you figured this one out?
This may help clarify:

449,163 Californians received a jury duty summons to which they declined using the "I am not a citizen, therefore I cannot sit on a jury" provision. The source for jury duty candidates is the VOTER REGISTRATION LIST.

BTW:
 Obama won EVERY state that did NOT require photo ID but lost in EVERY state that did.
