

Recipe Corner...

...has a health tip this week.
 During the 99% boredom time in a war zone, the Navy dentists on carriers I served was always available. Got into the habit of getting my teeth cleaned and carried that habit over to civilian life at least three times a year. Still have all of them.

Dentistry is a profitable business. However, not because of the tooth fairy.

I get lots of ads in the mail from dentists that include before and after pictures of their clients...a few not quite believable as real.

This one I would believe. With a 10% discount for The Big Guy?

All the news I see fit to print.
Freedom of the press belongs to those who own one.

The chaos these two have caused:

Primary care providers across the U.S. were bribed with incentive programs to coerce patients into getting the toxic COVID shot. Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield paid doctors $50 for each Medicaid patient aged 6 months and older, who got the experimental jab. Doctors have been financially incentivized to vaccinate children for a long time. Blue Cross Blue Shield paid pediatricians a $400 bonus for each patient that completed 10 vaccinations before their second birthday, provided 63% of their patients were fully vaccinated

Bribery is also par for the course when it comes to vaccine mandates. Pfizer paid undisclosed sums to front groups that advocated for COVID jab mandates, thereby hiding their conflict of interest. Primary care providers across the U.S. were bribed with incentive programs to coerce patients into getting the toxic COVID shot. Since there was no medical malpractice liability, doctors profited while patients risked their lives as participants in an unprecedented medical experiment, all while being lied to about the safety and effectiveness of these injections. While the COVID-19 pandemic furthered many globalist goals, it inadvertently tanked childhood vaccination rates. To get childhood vaccination rates back on track, a global alliance has launched "The Big Catch-Up" initiative; the largest effort (so far).

Book Report

Debut novel of this author. But wait...there's more! Robert Galbraith is the clever pseudonym J. K. Rawlings chose for this detective series of seven (so far) novels. Yes, the author of the Harry Potter series and films is having fun with this genre while thumbing her nose at the leftists. The characters she created for this series are as diverse as those for Harry Potter. Crisp dialogue, memorable characters and a plot that has you guessing all the way to The End.

Meanwhile at the movies:

Netflix gives Narnia to "Barbie," "Little Women" director, who sees her work as "the opposite of the creation myth in Genesis" and strips away "the pre-Victorian morality" of characters. "Barbie was invented first. Ken was invented after Barbie, to burnish Barbie's position in our eyes and in the world. That kind of creation myth is the opposite of the creation myth in Genesis."

One of the seven wonders of the world, the Temple of Artemis, was burned down by an arsonist who wished to be famous for his crime. Following his execution, the Ancient Greeks made it an offence subject to the death penalty to mention his name.

Sounds like a plan:

Mass Shooter Wearing Bulletproof Vest Kills Five Adults and Injures Two Children in Philadelphia -Two Suspects in Custody - Police Commissioner Says She Has "Absolutely No Idea Why This Happened" Perp is a BLM transgender male.

Woman freaking out on an airplane and demanding to get off after she believed someone who was in the back of the plane "wasn't real." Not arrested and not allowed to get back on the flight. No word where she is now (or that anyone cares).

Adam Schiff Renews Call for Democrats to Pack U.S. Supreme Court With Liberal Justices...Fundraises to 'Unpack'.

"Our country is trash in so many ways and instead of using our resources to make it better we continue to oppress Marginalized groups that we have targeted since the beginning of times," said another WNBA player.

Dylan Mulvaney has finally broken his silence on the Bud Light controversy saying, "...more bullying and transphobia than I could have ever imagined." (Think harder?)

Liberal Washington Post Whines About Fireworks Contributing to Pollution and Climate Change.

Former Biden White House press secretary and current MSNBC host Jen Psaki claims that Muslims opposed to LGBT ideology in schools are being "manipulated" by conservatives and "white supremacists...against the tiny marginalized group of transgender Americans."

Joey Chestnut successfully defended his title this Fourth of July, earning his 16th Nathan's Hot Dog Eating contest with 62 hot dogs in just 10 minutes. The female winner was champion Miki Sudo who put away 39.5 hot dogs and buns. No mention of who was counting and if they were from Arizona.

California Reparations Task Force calls for elimination of child support debt for black residents because nation's laws have torn African American families apart. (They were actually paying child support?) A member of the slavery reparations committee, called straight white men a "danger to society" and "serial killers". (Don't tempt them!)

Lame Stream Media focused on the above stories to avoid the elephant in the room (excuse the pun)...election fraud and Biden's obvious dementia.

I don't know if I'm being distracted by vaccine deaths so I don't notice inflation, or if inflation is the distraction to Ukraine money laundering, or if Ukraine is a distraction for rampant pedophilia, or if pedos are distracting me from election fraud.

OK...how about this:

A uniformed Secret Service agent found a white powder substance. Preliminary testing confirmed it was cocaine. The discovery led to an evacuation of the White House – President Joe Biden was not on premise at the time...where was Hunter?

Next nutcase:

After Blowing Up the Russian Oil Pipeline and Bombing Poland and then Blaming Russia – Zelensky Is Now Warning that "Russia" Is Going to Blow Up a Nuclear Plant. Betcha Lindsay Graham is smiling?

Wherefore art thou Fauci?
Busy with Hunter's rehab?

July 4th: count your blessings.

July 5th: count your fingers.

Hope you kept the fireworks away from children. Only adults who have been drinking are in charge?

Until next week...
