

Recipe Corner

Yes, I have lots of crockpots in various sizes and recipes to go with them. Think about it...it cooks on low for 4-10 hours and you wind up with something that's both delicious and nutritious. If only there was a way to force people to set their brain to crockpot mode!

My favorite crockpot recipe is attached as a pdf file.

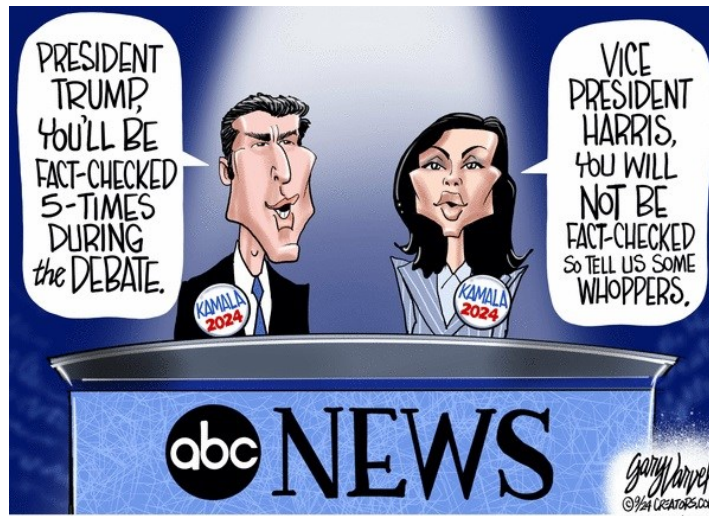

Been a while since I was at the range. Did discover having six cups of coffee won't improve the shot grouping. But I was able to cover the grouping with my palm so there's that. Best grouping was at 10 yards. 25 yards was really stretching it but I did manage a lethal grouping. That's a Kimber Micro in 380ACP, my favorite conceal carry. Now I have to strip and clean it.

Candidate debates were invented by the Lame Stream Media to boost ratings (or generate "clicks" on their websites). ABC took it a step further this time by adding commercials in the breaks that pushed their programming. Any resemblance to a real debate is purely fictional. Debate begins with a supposition using only one subject. The debaters then take a positive or negative position and offer their reasoning. The judges then decide which argument made the case better than the other.

In the real world, the audience would decide without dozens of "pundits" telling the audience what they should decide.

In two minute spurts, Trump outlined what he DID DO during his term. Harris explained what she WOULD DO...even though she was in a position for the last almost four years to DO IT.

Abortion was the central clash...with Trump's position that it is a State's issue while Harris said the Federal gov't should be in charge. Think about that...State issue means it is a democratic vote to decide. Federal gov't control would rely on the Republic concept of having elected congress critters decide.

No wonder voters get confused.

Book Report

This book, from 2017, is also a HULU TV series. Second season due Sept 12. Stars Jeff Bridges and John Lithgow. Bridges is also executive producer and is a non-woke and versatile actor who is seldom recognized by Hollyweird but loved by fans. Maybe the fact that he has been married for 37 years to a non-Hollyweird woman has something to do with that.

Here's a link to a list of books that have made it to TV or theaters:

www.goodreads.com/list/show/87198.Books_Made_into_Movies_or_TV_Shows

There's about 100 in this list and I'm perusing to find my favorite authors. The website encourages people to add as they find them.

Hollyweird usually does well with the books as long as the author is involved e.g. Lee Child and the Reacher series.

Non-book series Tulsa season 2 starts tomorrow. Hope Sylvester Stallone still shines.

The chief spokesman for the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Southern District of New York (SDNY) was caught tearing into Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg and other prosecutors for carrying out a "perversion of justice" in targeting former President Donald Trump.

A New York judge has delayed former President Donald Trump's sentencing on felony criminal charges until Nov. 26. Trump was convicted in May on 34 counts of falsifying business records related to a hush money payment to adult film star Stormy Daniels near the end of the 2016 presidential campaign. Prosecutors from Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg's office said they would "defer to the Court on whether an adjournment is warranted to allow for orderly appellate litigation" of any Trump appeal, but "would be prepared to appear for sentencing on any future date the Court sets." Trump was at one point facing the prospect of four criminal trials this year. The New York case is the only one to have made it to trial. My guess: they are positioning a pardon of Trump by Biden for a pardon for Hunter Biden's tax case involving a 17-year prison sentence. Or...prevent him from becoming confirmed and J.D. Vance becomes president via congress. BTW: Stormy has testified and in writing that she did NOT have anything to do with Trump.

Has anyone figured out how much this lawfare is costing us? Remember those 87,000 IRS agents they hired? They claim to have collected $1.3 billion from high wealth tax dodgers. OK...87,000 agents @ $100k/yr is $8.7 billion in gov't salaries to collect $1.3 billion. Duh!

I see where a celebrity who gained fame singing about bad choices is urging her 14 yrs/old fan base to vote for Harris. Her name is Taylor Swift and I thought she was a new running back after the NFL featured her in the news.

North Carolina had been scheduled to start sending absentee ballots last Friday, but that was delayed after Robert F. Kennedy Jr. successfully sued to have his name removed from the ballot. Wonder if they will also remove Trump's and claim... "Ooops, my bad!"
